INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

Dear Ms. Lee:

Confirming our conversation on April 12th, concerning registration of a railroad car, I am enclosing herewith two copies of the bill of sale, one copy notorized. Also my check in the amount of $13.00 for the registration fee.

I warrant that I am the owner of Pullman built sleeping car "Ellendale," originally built for the Pennsylvania Railroad by the Pullman Standard Car and Manufacturing Co. in 1924, Chicago, Ill.

The last owner of the car "Ellendale," was Alan W. Maples who sold the car to me on March 26, 1988. as stated on the title or bill of sale. Copy of my check to Mr. Maples is included. I am the buyer and owner of the "Ellendale."

Please register the car, "Ellendale," in the name of Frederick A. Winkler at the above address. Thank you for your assistance with this request.

Yours very truly,
Frederick A. Winkler
