

LIST OF PREPARERS

SURFACE TRANSPORTATION BOARD SECTION OF ENVIRONMENTAL ANALYSIS

Victoria Rutson - Chief, Section of Environmental Analysis

Diana Wood - Section of Environmental Analysis, Project Manager, Environmental Protection Specialist

Catherine Glidden - Environmental Protection Specialist, Section of Environmental Analysis, Expertise in Cultural Resources

URS CORPORATION- THIRD PARTY CONSULTANT

Project Management, Transportation, and Land Use

Jaya Zyman-Ponebshek

Project Manager; BS Industrial Biochemical Engineering, 1984, Autonomous Metropolitan University; MS Environmental and Water Resources Engineering, 1986, University of Texas at Austin; 22 years of experience in environmental consulting, specifically environmental assessments and environmental impact statements of rail and other linear projects under NEPA.

Biology

Jill Seed

Senior Biologist; BS Natural Science, 1997, Louisiana University; 8 years experience in environmental consulting, specifically biological resources, wetlands, and threatened and endangered species surveys.

Groundwater, Geology, and Karst Features

Grant Snyder

Groundwater Resources Specialist; B.S. Geology, 1987, Lamar University Beaumont, TX, Graduate Studies; Hydrogeology, University of Texas at San Antonio; Groundwater Hydrology, Edwards Aquifer, Drilling technology, Borehole; Geophysics; 18 years of experience in water resources.

Surface Water

Jeff Irvin

Surface Water Specialist; BS, 1972, U.S. Military Academy; MSCE Water Resources Engineering, 1981, Stanford University; MSCE, 1981, Geotechnical Engineering, Stanford University; 32 years of experience in environmental consulting.

Noise and Vibration

Rob Greene

Noise and Vibration Task Manager; Board-certified Noise Control Engineer, 1984, Institute of Noise Control Engineering; BS Environmental Science, Pacific Western University; Advanced acoustic and vibration studies, Bruel & Kjaer University; 29 years of experience in environmental impact analysis with an emphasis in environmental acoustics and noise control engineering; Member, Transportation Research Board Transportation Related Noise and Vibration Committee ADC 40.

Cultural Resources

Dan Cassedy

Archeology and History specialist, peer reviewer and consultant; B.A. Anthropology; University of New Hampshire; M.A. Anthropology; State University of New York, Binghamton; Ph.D. Anthropology; State University of New York, Binghamton; 24 years of experience in archeology consulting.

Rail Operations

Ron Rypinski

Rail transportation specialist; 40 years of experience in domestic and international railroad and transit operations and maintenance planning and design, (including commuter rail [push-pull and DMU], light rail, heavy rail, high-speed rail, streetcars, and automated people mover systems and facilities) and freight railroad operations, fixed plant improvements, track inspection, freight rolling stock, and experience with FRA regulations.

Public Involvement/Technical Editing

Nancy Gates

Public Involvement and Technical Communications Specialist. BA English, Smith College, Northampton, MA (1972); MA Journalism/Communications, The University of Texas at Austin (1980); 28 years of experience in public involvement and community outreach.

Geographic Information Systems (GIS)

Julia Presas

GIS Analyst; B.A. Geography, 2002, University of Texas at Austin; 6 years of experience in identification, collection, integration, analysis, and publishing of geospatial data.

John Wade

GIS Analyst with 17 years of experience.