SURFACE TRANSPORTATION BOARD

DECISION

Docket No. FD 35445

LOUISVILLE & INDIANA RAILROAD COMPANY—TRACKAGE RIGHTS
EXEMPTION—CSX TRANSPORTATION, INC.

MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Decided: November 23, 2010

By motion filed on November 12, 2010, Louisville & Indiana Railroad Company (L&I) seeks a protective order under 49 C.F.R. § 1104.14 to protect the confidential and commercially sensitive terms and conditions of the unredacted trackage rights agreement (Agreement) between L&I and CSX Transportation, Inc. (CSXT) submitted under seal in this proceeding. Concurrently, L&I has filed a notice of exemption under 49 C.F.R. § 1180.2(d)(7) for L&I's acquisition from CSXT of the trackage rights described in the Agreement and has attached to the notice a redacted version of the Agreement.

Good cause exists to grant the motion for protective order. L&I submits that a protective order is necessary because the Agreement contains confidential commercial information that could be competitively damaging to the parties if those terms were made public.

The motion conforms with the Board's rules at 49 C.F.R. § 1104.14 governing protective orders to maintain the confidentiality of materials submitted to the Board. Issuance of the protective order will ensure that confidential information will be used solely for this proceeding and not for other purposes. Accordingly, the motion for protective order will be granted, and the Agreement shall be subject to the Protective Order and Undertaking, as modified, contained in the Appendix to this decision.<sup>1</sup>

This decision will not significantly affect either the quality of the human environment or the conservation of energy resources.

It is ordered:

1. The motion for a protective order is granted, and the Protective Order and Undertaking in the Appendix to this decision are adopted.

2. The Agreement submitted in Docket No. FD 35445 will be kept under seal by the Board and not placed in the public docket or otherwise disclosed to the public, unless the attached Undertaking is executed and the terms of the Protective Order are followed, or unless otherwise ordered by the Board.

3. This decision is effective on its service date.

By the Board, Rachel D. Campbell, Director, Office of Proceedings.

APPENDIX

PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. For purposes of this Protective Order (the “Order”), the term “person” or “people” includes any person or entity.

2. For purposes of this Order, information designated as “Confidential,” as used herein, includes all such designated material, and all information contained in such designated material.

3. This Order shall apply to all information designated as “Confidential” (i) submitted to the Board or any other administrative, legislative or judicial body in connection with this proceeding; or (ii) obtained by any person pursuant to discovery requests, discovery responses or deposition or hearing transcripts, which are made in connection with this proceeding.

4. Any person submitting documents to the Board or any other administrative, legislative or judicial body in connection with this proceeding or submitting material requesting or responding to discovery in connection with this proceeding may designate as “Confidential” any information or portion thereof that it in good faith contends contains confidential, proprietary, or commercially sensitive information by clearly writing “Confidential” on each page of material so designated.

5. If a person inadvertently fails to designate documents or other material as “Confidential,” it may make such a designation subsequently by notifying the appropriate people in writing and sending revised pages properly marked in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Order. After receipt of such notification, such materials and information shall be substituted and treated as if they initially had been designated as Confidential.

6. A person at any time may request by letter that a producing person cancel the “Confidential” designation of any document (or portion thereof), including without limitation any discovery response or request (or portion thereof). Such request should identify with particularity the designated documents (or portions thereof) it contends should not be treated as Confidential, provide the reasons there for, and explicitly state that it is made pursuant to this paragraph. If such request is denied in whole or in part, the requesting person may file a motion with the Board to have the “Confidential” designation removed as to the information listed in the request. The documents (or portions thereof) shall be treated as designated, pending a ruling on such motion. The burden of establishing that such information should not be afforded the protections of this Order shall be on the person filing the motion.

7. Information designated as “Confidential” may be disclosed only to “Authorized Persons.” An “Authorized Person” is a person who has signed an undertaking, in the form set forth at Attachment 1 hereto, stating his or her identity, title, and employer, and that he or she has read this Order and agrees to abide by it, and who is:

- (a) an attorney actively involved in this proceeding on behalf of a person who is a party to this proceeding, or a legal assistant or a clerical employee under such attorney’s supervision; or
- (b) a non-permanent employee who has been employed by any person who is a party to this proceeding to provide advice, expertise or assistance in connection with this proceeding, or an assistant or clerical employee under such a non-permanent employee's supervision.

8. Storage, transmission, or communication of information designated as "Confidential" must be such as to reasonably ensure that Confidential information will not be disclosed, accidentally or otherwise, to non-Authorized Persons.

9. Information designated as "Confidential" may not be used for any purpose whatsoever other than the preparation and presentation of evidence and argument in this proceeding and in any judicial review of the Board's decision in this proceeding.

10. All Confidential information submitted to the Board, and any material submitted to the Board that contains Confidential information, shall be filed under seal and shall comply with all applicable Board rules and regulations necessary to effect the exclusion of the submitted Confidential information from the public docket.

11. Any person who has received Confidential information and/or materials containing such Confidential information (a "Recipient") shall destroy all copies of such information and materials and shall provide written notice of such destruction to the person that designated such information or materials as Confidential, at the earlier of (1) such time as the Recipient withdraws from this Proceeding, or (2) the termination of this proceeding, including all appeals; provided that an Authorized Person who is outside counsel to a Recipient may retain 1 copy of such Confidential information and materials for his or her files.

12. The provisions of this Order that restrict the handling, communication and use of Confidential information shall continue to be binding after the termination of this proceeding, unless the Board or the person designating such information as Confidential authorizes in writing alternative handling, communication or use of the information. Nothing in this Order shall restrict the right of any person who has designated information as Confidential to disclose voluntarily such information, so long as such information does not contain or reflect any information designated by another person as Confidential.

13. This Order shall not bar or otherwise restrict:

- (a) a person from opposing production of information under the Board's rules of Practice;
- (b) an Authorized Person from making copies, abstracts, digests and analyses of Confidential information for use in connection with this proceeding, subject to the requirement that all such copies, abstracts, digests and analyses be treated as Confidential information and clearly marked as such;
- (c) an Authorized Person from rendering advice or opinions in connection with this proceeding to his or her client or employer based upon his or her examination of Confidential information, provided such person does not disclose the Confidential information itself to any non-Authorized Person; and

(d) a person from applying to the Board at any time for additional protection.

14. If Confidential information in the possession of any person is subpoenaed by any administrative, legislative or judicial body, or any other person purporting to have authority to subpoena such information, the person to whom the subpoena is directed will not produce such information until a reasonable amount of time has passed after giving written notice (including the delivery of a copy of the subpoena) to the person who has designated such information as “Confidential,” or the attorneys for such person. If a subpoena purports to require production of such Confidential information on less than five (5) business days’ notice, the person to whom the subpoena is directed shall give immediate notice by telephone of the receipt of such subpoena to the person who designated such information as “Confidential” or the attorneys for such person.

15. No person may present or otherwise use any Confidential information at a Board hearing in this proceeding, unless that person has previously submitted, under seal, all proposed documents containing or reflecting such Confidential information to the Board, and has submitted to the Board a written request that the Board (a) restrict attendance at the hearing during any discussion of such Confidential information, and (b) restrict access to any portion of the record or briefs reflecting discussion of such Confidential information, in accordance with this Order.

16. If a person intends to use any Confidential information in the course of any deposition in this Proceeding (a “User”), the User shall provide prior notice to the person who has designated the information, as Confidential, and the User shall be responsible for limiting attendance at any portion of the deposition at which any Confidential information is used or discussed to persons who are Authorized Persons.

17. A person must file simultaneously a public version of any confidential submission it files with the Board.

18. All parties must comply with all of the provisions stated in this Protective Order unless good cause, as determined by the Board, is shown by any party to warrant suspension of any of the provisions herein.
