DECISION

STB Docket No. 42106

AMEROPAN OIL CORPORATION—PETITION FOR DECLARATORY ORDER—
REASONABLENESS OF DEMURRAGE CHARGES

Decided: May 29, 2009

On March 19, 2008, Ameropan Oil Corporation filed a petition for declaratory order to resolve a dispute over demurrage charges assessed by Illinois Central Railroad Company (IC), as referred to the Board by the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, on March 13, 2008, in Illinois Central Railroad Company v. Ameropan Oil Corporation, No. 1:07-CV-03833. By decision served on May 29, 2008, the Board adopted a procedural schedule under the Board's modified procedure provisions at 49 CFR part 1112.

On July 11, 2008, IC requested that the Board mediate this dispute and hold this matter in abeyance for a 90-day period, to which IC agreed in writing.¹ By decision served on July 22, 2008 (July 2008 decision), the Board provided a 90-day period for non-binding mediation and indicated that the Board would designate a staff member to serve as mediator. The July 2008 decision also held the procedural schedule in abeyance for 90 days, until October 20, 2008, while the parties pursued a mediated agreement. By decisions served on November 12, December 22, 2008, and March 23, 2009, the time for mediation was extended until December 19, 2008, March 19, and April 20, 2009, respectively, and the procedural schedule was held in abeyance during those times. Most recently, by decision served on April 16, 2009, at the joint request of the parties, the time for mediation was extended until June 1, 2009, and the procedural schedule was held in abeyance during that time.

On May 27, 2009, both parties filed a request to extend the time to mediate until July 1, 2009. The parties state that they have made progress in negotiations and believe that there is a reasonable prospect of settlement if the mediation period is extended. The parties state that their principals and attorneys met on May 5, 2009, and made significant progress toward resolution of matters in dispute. The parties also indicate that the extension request is not opposed by the Board's mediators.

The request is reasonable and will be granted. Accordingly, the time for mediation will be extended until July 1, 2009, and the procedural schedule will be held in abeyance until then.

This action will not significantly affect either the quality of the human environment or the conservation of energy resources.

It is ordered:

1. The request to extend the time to mediate is extended until July 1, 2009.
2. The procedural schedule is held in abeyance until July 1, 2009, while ADR procedures are ongoing.
3. This decision is effective on the date of its service.

By the Board, Anne K. Quinlan, Acting Secretary.
