Dear Mr. Navecky,;

Just wanted to share a story with you that pretty much sums it up with very little words needed.

It was Easter morning 8 am my 5 grandchildren were in from Iowa.. I had made breakfast for all of us. We were sitting around the kitchen table eating and talking and looking out at the goats pasture and I said to the kids can you believe they want to run a train thru the goats pasture. My granddaughter Isla who is 5 turns and looks at me and says: BUT GRANDMA DID THEY ASK YOU?(as serious as can be).

I really don't think anything else needs to be said! But I do think this letter should be on TOP OF YOUR STACK OF MANY LETTERS... as an excellent example...

Sincerely yours,
