BEFORE THE
SURFACE TRANSPORTATION BOARD

Ex Parte No. 704 (Sub-No. 1)

REVIEW OF COMMODITY, BOXCAR, AND TOFC/COFC EXEMPTIONS

MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to 49 C.F.R. § 1104.14(b), the Association of American Railroads (AAR) respectfully requests that the Surface Transportation Board enter a protective order in the above-captioned proceeding, in the form provided in the Appendix to this motion. The order is required to permit AAR and its members to submit to the Board certain competitively sensitive and proprietary information, including information extracted from the Confidential Waybill Sample data, and other competitively sensitive information and data designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” by AAR or any Class I Railroad participating in these proceedings.

The information that AAR and its members have filed under seal is responsive to the issues raised in the Board’s Notice of Proposed Rulemaking dated March 23, 2016. The proposed order is necessary to protect this information from disclosure and will enable AAR and its members to present this information to the Board while protecting its confidentiality.¹ The proposed protective order generally follows the format of protective orders the Board has entered in other recent cases, including those concerning Confidential Waybill Sample data.

¹ Outside counsel for any party that filed comments in this proceeding that wishes to receive access to the “Highly Confidential” version of AAR’s filing prior to the Board’s issuance of a protective order may contact the undersigned. AAR will make the “Highly Confidential” version available so long as counsel agrees to treat the material as “Highly Confidential” in accordance with the terms of the proposed protective order.

Accordingly, AAR requests that the Board enter the proposed order.

Dated: July 26, 2016

APPENDIX

PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. For purposes of this Protective Order:
 - a. “Confidential material” means information or material designated as “CONFIDENTIAL,” and any information or material derived therefrom.
 - b. “Highly Confidential material” means information or material designated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL,” and any information or material derived therefrom.
 - c. “Party” means party to STB Ex Parte No. 704 (Sub-No. 1).
 - d. “Proceeding” means the proceeding and rulemaking in STB Ex Parte No. 704 (Sub-No. 1) and any judicial review proceeding arising from STB Ex Parte No. 704 (Sub-No. 1).
2. Any Party producing information or material in discovery to another Party in this Proceeding, or submitting information or material in pleadings or evidence in this Proceeding, that the Party believes in good faith reveals confidential information, may designate such information or material as “CONFIDENTIAL” in accordance with paragraph 4.
3. Any Party producing information or material in discovery to another Party in this Proceeding, or submitting information or material in pleadings or evidence in this Proceeding, that the Party believes in good faith reveals shipper-specific or railroad-specific rate, cost, quantity, routing, or other competitively sensitive or proprietary information may designate such information or material as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” in accordance with paragraph 4.
4. The designation of information or material as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” shall be made as follows:
 - a. For pleadings, by imprinting the word(s) “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” on the cover page of the pleading.
 - b. For documents and other materials, by imprinting the word(s) “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” on the face of each page of a document so designated or in a similarly conspicuous location for non-document materials.
 - c. For depositions, by indicating on the record at the deposition or upon review of the deposition transcript which portions of the transcript and/or responses should be treated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential.”
 - d. For electronically stored information, either by imprinting the word(s) “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” on any disk or storage medium, or on the face of each page of a document so designated.

5. Confidential Material may not be disclosed in any way, directly or indirectly, to any person or entity, except to an employee, counsel, consultant, or agent of a Party to this Proceeding, or an employee of such counsel, consultant, or agent, who, before receiving access to such information or material, has received and read a copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by its terms by signing a confidentiality undertaking in the form set forth in the attached Undertaking for Confidential Material.
6. Highly Confidential Material may not be disclosed in any way, directly or indirectly, to any employee of a Party to this Proceeding, or to any other person or entity, except (a) to an outside counsel or outside consultant of a Party, who, before receiving access to such information or material, has received and read a copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by its terms by signing a confidentiality undertaking in the form set forth in the attached Undertaking for Highly Confidential Material and (b), with respect to confidential waybill data, only to persons who have received separate approval from the Board to access the confidential waybill data in this Proceeding, pursuant to the terms of that approval.
7. Confidential Material and Highly Confidential Material shall be used solely for the purposes of this Proceeding, and not for any other business, commercial, operational, or competitive purposes.
8. In the event that a Party produces material which should have been designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" and inadvertently fails to designate the material as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL," the producing Party may notify the other parties in writing within 10 days of discovery of its inadvertent failure to make the confidentiality designation and promptly furnish properly designated material. A Party that received the material without the confidentiality designation must return the non-designated material or destroy it, as directed by the producing Party, or take such other steps as the parties agree to in writing, and must make all reasonable efforts to recover such material from any non-parties to which it may have been disclosed, and any copies made by such non-parties.
9. In the event that a Party inadvertently produces material that is protected by the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, or any other privilege, the producing Party may make a written request within a reasonable time after it discovers the inadvertent disclosure that another Party return the inadvertently produced material. A Party that received the inadvertently produced material must either return the material or destroy it immediately upon receipt of the written request, as directed by the producing Party. By returning or destroying the material, the receiving Party is not conceding that the material is privileged and is not waiving its right to later challenge the substantive privilege claim, provided that it may not challenge the privilege claim by arguing that the inadvertent production waived the privilege.

10. No Party may include Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material in any pleading, brief, discovery request or response, or other document submitted to the Board, unless the pleading or other document is submitted under seal, in a package clearly marked on the outside as “Confidential Materials Subject to Protective Order.” See 49 CFR 1104.14.
11. If any Party intends to use Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material at a Board hearing or mediation in this Proceeding, or in any judicial review proceeding arising herefrom, the Party so intending shall submit any proposed exhibits or other documents setting forth or revealing such Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material to the Board, the mediator, or the court, as appropriate, with a written request that the Board, the mediator, or the court: (a) restrict attendance at the hearings or mediation sessions during discussion of such Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material and (b) restrict access to the portion of the record or briefs reflecting discussion of such Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material in accordance with the terms of this Protective Order.
12. If any Party intends to use Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material in the course of any deposition in this Proceeding, the Party so intending shall so advise counsel for the Party producing the materials, counsel for the deponent, and all other counsel attending the deposition, and all portions of the deposition at which any such Confidential Material or Highly Confidential material is used shall be restricted to persons who may review the material under this Protective Order. All portions of deposition transcripts and/or exhibits that consist of or disclose Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material shall be kept under seal and treated as Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material in accordance with the terms of this Protective Order.
13. To the extent that material reflecting the terms of contracts, shipper-specific traffic data, other traffic data, or other competitively sensitive or proprietary information is produced or otherwise disclosed by a Party in this Proceeding and is held and used by the receiving person in compliance with this Protective Order, such production, disclosure, and use of the material and of the data that the material contains shall be deemed essential for the disposition of this and any related proceedings and shall not be deemed a violation of 49 U.S.C. 11323, 11904, or any other relevant provision of the ICC Termination Act of 1995.
14. Except for this Proceeding, the parties agree that if a Party is required by law or order of a governmental or judicial body to release “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” material produced by another Party or copies or notes thereof as to which it obtained access pursuant to this Protective Order, the Party so required shall notify the producing Party in writing within three working days of the determination that the “CONFIDENTIAL” material, “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” material, or copies or notes are to be released, or within three working days prior to such release, whichever is soonest, to permit the producing Party the opportunity to contest the release.

15. Information that is publicly available or obtained outside of this Proceeding from a person with a right to disclose it shall not be subject to this Protective Order even if the same information is produced and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” in this Proceeding.
16. A “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” designation may be removed by consent of a Party who asserts the confidential, proprietary, or commercially sensitive interest, or absent such consent, by appropriate decision of the Board upon application of a Party seeking to remove such designation.
17. Each Party has a right to view its own data, information, and documentation (i.e., information originally generated or compiled by or for that Party or if generated or compiled by another Party, the data, information, or documentation was disclosed by the producing Party in the ordinary course of business to the other Party), even if that data, information and documentation has been designated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” by a producing Party, without securing prior permission from the producing Party.
18. If a Party or Parties (the “Filing Party or Parties”) file and serve upon another Party or Parties (the “Reviewing Party or Parties”) a pleading or evidence containing the “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” material of the Filing Party or Parties, the Filing Party or Parties shall also contemporaneously provide to outside counsel for the Reviewing Party or Parties a list of the “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” information of the Filing Party or Parties contained in the pleading that must be redacted from the “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” version prior to review by the in-house personnel of the Reviewing Party or Parties.
19. Any Party that receives Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material that is not the Party’s own information or material, and any information or material derived therefrom, must be destroyed by the receiving Party, its employees, counsel, and agents at the completion of this Proceeding, except that (1) outside counsel for each Party may retain file copies of all pleadings and evidence filed with the Board; and (2) in-house counsel for each Party may retain file copies of all pleadings and evidence which they were authorized to review under this Protective Order.
20. Any Party filing with the Board a “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” pleading in this proceeding should simultaneously file a public version of the pleading.

HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

I, [NAME], am outside [COUNSEL] [CONSULTANT] for [NAME OF PARTY], for whom I am acting in this proceeding. I have read the Protective Order served on [DATE], governing the production and use of Confidential Information and Confidential Documents in STB Ex Parte 704 (Sub-No. 1), understand the same, and agree to be bound by its terms. I further agree not to disclose any data, information or material designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” to any person or entity who: (i) is not eligible for access to “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” material under the terms of the Protective Order, or (ii) has not executed a “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” Undertaking in the form hereof. I also understand and agree, as a condition precedent to my receiving, reviewing, or using copies of any documents designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL,” that I will limit my use of those documents and the information they contain to this proceeding and any judicial review proceeding arising therefrom, that I will take all necessary steps to assure that said documents and information will be kept on a confidential basis by any outside counsel or outside consultants working with me, that under no circumstances will I permit access to said materials or information by employees of my client or its subsidiaries, affiliates, or owners, and that at the conclusion of this proceeding (including any proceeding on administrative review, judicial review, or remand), I will promptly destroy any documents containing or reflecting information or documents designated or stamped as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL,” other than file copies, kept by outside counsel, of pleadings and other documents filed with the Board. Under no circumstances will I permit access to documents designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” by, or disclose any information contained therein to, any persons or entities for which I am not acting in this proceeding.

I understand and agree that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for breach of this undertaking and that other parties producing Confidential Information or Confidential Documents shall be entitled to specific performance and injunctive and/or other equitable relief as a remedy for any such breach, and I further agree to waive any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with such remedy. Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for breach of this Undertaking but shall be in addition to all remedies available at law or equity.
