To Whom It May Concern,

This is to file my letter of intent to attend the Surface Transportation Board public meeting on September 4, 2014. My name is Todd Reisenauer and I am the Democratic-NPL endorsed candidate running for the six year position on the North Dakota Public Service Commission. I am concerned about the infrastructure for energy and agriculture transport in North Dakota and as I have travelled this state as candidate I have heard over and over from our agriculture producers about the perennial problem in the transport of their product. As I have further analyzed this problem, it has become clear to me that this has been a persistent problem many years in the making. I have a vital interest in the intent and purpose of the public hearing as I work to become the next Public Service Commissioner.

Sincerely,

Todd Reisenauer, PSC Candidate
