

EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION REQUESTED

- November 4, 2014—Reply Comments in STB Docket No. EP 722, Railroad Revenue Adequacy.
- November 5, 2014—Rebuttal Evidence in STB Docket No. 42121, Total Petrochemicals and Refining USA, Inc. v. CSX Transportation, Inc.

This schedule places considerable strain on DuPont's counsel, because it involves the preparation and submission of 5 filings in under 30 days. Moreover, DuPont's counsel will be travelling on business for 5 days during this period. The proposed procedural schedule reduces the burden of simultaneously preparing, evaluating, and responding to filings in multiple Board proceedings by spreading the due dates over a 60-day period. Additionally, it provides adequate time for review of the Board's workpapers, which may impact on the parties' petitions for reconsideration.

Finally, this schedule also would extend the time for replying to petitions for reconsideration from 20 days to 30 days due to the size of the record in this proceeding, the Board's prior expansion of the page limits from 20 to 50 pages, and the Thanksgiving holiday.

EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION REQUESTED

For the foregoing reasons, DuPont respectfully requests that the Board extend the deadline for filing Petitions for Reconsideration in this proceeding until November 12, 2014, and replies to December 12, 2014. DuPont requests expedited consideration because replies are currently due in just over two weeks.

Respectfully submitted,
