REPLY TO MOTION FOR A PROTECTIVE ORDER

The Maryland Transit Administration (“MTA”), a modal administration of the Maryland Department of Transportation (“MDOT”) acting on behalf of MDOT, hereby responds to the February 19, 2009 Motion of James Riffin for a Protective Order pursuant to 49 C.F.R. § 1104.14(b). MTA submits that if a Protective Order is required in this proceeding at all, the form of the Order proposed by Mr. Riffin is overbroad: there are no valid commercial reasons to keep the MTA, MDOT, other modal administrations of MDOT and their counsel from having full access to any information that may be relevant to this matter.

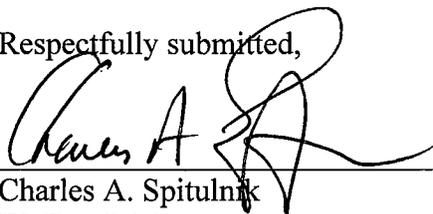

A Protective Order is typically designed to protect commercially sensitive data from competitors. See Canadian National Rwy. Co.–Trackage Rights Exemption–Detroit River Tunnel Co., STB Finance Docket No. 34001 (STB Served March 9, 2001), slip op. at 1. Because MTA, MDOT and the MDOT modal administrations do not compete with Mr. Riffin’s putative operation, a typical protective order is not required. The proposed Protective Order attached to this Reply as Appendix A is consistent with Protective Orders adopted by the Surface Transportation Board (“Board”) in where public entities are participating in a proceeding to protect the interests of the citizens and residents of their jurisdiction but have no competitive, commercial interest in the transaction at issue. See, e.g., The City of Alexandria, Va.–Petition for Declaratory Order, STB Finance Docket No. 35157 (STB served Dec. 29, 2008).

Given issues that have arisen with Mr. Riffin’s prior submissions to the Board,<sup>1</sup> MTA further proposes that Mr. Riffin be required to submit a certification regarding the confidential or highly confidential nature of all information for which he seeks to claim Confidential or Highly Confidential status. MTA has accordingly added language to paragraphs 3 and 5 of Appendix A.

For the reasons stated above, MTA respectfully requests that the Board issue a Protective Order in the form that is attached to this Reply as Attachment A.

Respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX A

APPENDIX A

1. For purposes of this Protective Order:

(a) “Confidential Documents” means documents and other tangible materials containing or reflecting Confidential Information.

(b) “Confidential Information” means traffic data (including but not limited to waybills, abstracts, study movement sheets, and any documents or computer tapes containing data derived from waybills, abstracts, study movement sheets, or other data bases, and cost work papers), the identification of shippers and receivers in conjunction with shipper-specific or other traffic data, the confidential terms of contracts, confidential financial and cost data, and other confidential or proprietary business or personal information.

(c) “Designated Material” means any documents designated or stamped as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” in accordance with paragraph 2, 3, 4 or 5 of this Protective Order, and any Confidential Information contained in such materials.

(g) “STB” means the U.S. Surface Transportation Board.

2. If the MTA, MDOT or any of MDOT’s modal administrations as a party to these Proceedings determines that any part of a document it submits, discovery request it propounds, discovery response it produces, transcript of a deposition or hearing in which it participates, or pleading or other paper to be submitted, filed, or served in these Proceedings contains Confidential Information or consists of Confidential Documents, then that party may designate and stamp such Confidential Information and Confidential Documents as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Any information or documents so designated or stamped as “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be handled as provided for hereinafter.

3. If James Riffin as a party to these Proceedings determines that any part of a document he submits, discovery request he propounds, discovery response he produces, transcript of a deposition or hearing in which he participates, or pleading or other paper to be submitted, filed, or served in these Proceedings contains Confidential Information or consists of Confidential Documents, then Mr. Riffin may designate and stamp such Confidential Information and Confidential Documents as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Mr. Riffin shall include with his information or documents a public certification to the Board describing the confidential nature of the information or documents so designated. Unless the MTA, MDOT or the Board objects to such certification, any information or documents so designated or stamped as “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be handled as provided for hereinafter.

4. If MTA, MDOT or any of MDOT’s modal administrations as a party to these Proceedings determines that any part of a document it submits, discovery request it propounds, discovery response it produces, transcript of a deposition or hearing in which it participates, or pleading or other paper to be submitted, filed, or served in these Proceedings contains shipper-specific rate or cost data, trackage rights compensation levels, or other competitively sensitive or proprietary information, then that party may designate and stamp such Confidential Information as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.” Any information or documents so designated or stamped as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” shall be handled as provided hereinafter.

5. If Mr. Riffin as a party to these Proceedings determines that any part of a document he submits, discovery request he propounds, discovery response he produces, transcript of a deposition or hearing in which he participates, or pleading or other paper to be submitted, filed, or served in these Proceedings contains shipper-specific rate or cost data, trackage rights compensation levels, or other competitively sensitive or proprietary information, then he may designate and stamp such Confidential Information as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.” Mr. Riffin shall include with his information or documents a public certification to the Board describing the highly confidential nature of the information or documents so designated. Unless the MTA, MDOT or the Board objects to such certification, any information or documents so designated or stamped as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” shall be handled as provided hereinafter.

6. Information and documents designated or stamped as “CONFIDENTIAL” may not be disclosed in any way, directly or indirectly, to any person or entity except to an employee, counsel, consultant, or agent of a party to these Proceedings, or an employee of such counsel, consultant, or agent, who, before receiving access to such information or documents, has been given and has read a copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by its terms by signing a confidentiality undertaking substantially in the form set forth at Exhibit A to this Order.

7. Information and documents designated or stamped as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” may not be disclosed in any way, directly or indirectly, to any person or entity except to an employee of MTA, MDOT or one of the modal administrations of MDOT or to outside an counsel, consultant, or agent of a party to these Proceedings, or an employee of such counsel, consultant, or agent, who, before receiving access to such information or documents, has been given and has read a copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by its terms by signing a confidentiality undertaking substantially in the form set forth at Exhibit B to this order.

8. In the event that a party determines that additional individuals need access to “Highly Confidential” documents, the party must notify the opposing party: (1) identifying the individual or individuals to whom the party would like to disclose “Highly Confidential” documents, and (2) identifying the “Highly Confidential” documents to be disclosed, after which the opposing party has 24 hours either to consent or to object to the additional disclosure. If the opposing party objects to the additional disclosure, the “Highly Confidential” documents will not be disclosed until the objection is resolved either by agreement of the parties or by the STB.

9. Any party to these Proceedings may challenge the designation by any other party of information or documents as “CONFIDENTIAL” or as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” by filing a motion with the STB to adjudicate such challenges.

10. Designated Material must be kept either in the office of outside counsel or in the office of the Counsel of MTA, may not be copied, and may not be used for any purposes, including without limitation any business, commercial, or competitive purposes, other than the preparation and presentation of evidence and argument in the Proceedings, and/or any judicial review proceedings in connection with the Proceedings and/or with any related proceedings.

11. Any party who receives Designated Material in discovery shall return or destroy such materials and any notes or documents reflecting such materials (other than file copies of pleadings or other documents filed with the STB and retained by outside counsel for a party to these Proceedings) at the earlier of: (1) such time as the party receiving the materials withdraws from these Proceedings, or (2) the completion of these Proceedings, including any petitions for reconsideration, appeals, or remands.

12. No party may include Designated Material in any pleading, brief, discovery request or response, or other document submitted to the STB unless the pleading or other document is submitted under seal pursuant to the rules of this Board.

13. No party may present or otherwise use any Designated Material at a hearing in these Proceedings, unless that party has previously submitted, under seal, all proposed exhibits and other documents containing or reflecting such Designated Material to the STB to whom relevant authority has been lawfully delegated by the STB, and has accompanied such submission with a written request that the STB: (a) restrict attendance at the hearing during any discussion of such Designated Material, and (b) restrict access to any portion of the record or briefs reflecting discussion of such Designated Material in accordance with this Protective Order.

14. If any party intends to use any Designated Material in the course of any deposition in these Proceedings, that party shall so advise counsel for the party producing the Designated Material, counsel for the deponent, and all other counsel attending the deposition. Attendance at any portion of the deposition at which any Designated Material is used or discussed shall be restricted to persons who may review that material under the terms of this Protective Order. All portions of deposition transcripts or exhibits that consist of, refer to, or otherwise disclose Designated Material shall be filed under seal and be otherwise handled as provided in this Protective Order.

15. To the extent that materials reflecting Confidential Information are produced by a party in these Proceedings, and are held and/or used by the receiving person in compliance with paragraphs 1, 2, or 3 above, such production, disclosure, holding, and use of the materials and of the data that the materials contain are deemed essential for the disposition of this and any related proceedings and will not be deemed a violation of 49 U.S.C. 11904 or of any other relevant provision of the ICC Termination Act of 1995.

16. All parties must comply with all of the provisions of this Protective Order unless the STB determines that good cause has been shown warranting suspension of any of the provisions herein.

17. Nothing in this Protective Order restricts the right of any party to disclose voluntarily any Confidential Information originated by that party, or to disclose voluntarily any Confidential Documents originated by that party, if such Confidential Information or Confidential Documents do not contain or reflect any Confidential Information originated by any other party.

18. Any party filing with the Board a “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” pleading in these Proceedings shall simultaneously file a public version of the pleading.
