MOTION TO CONSOLIDATE

1. Now comes James Riffin (“Riffin”), protestant in the above proceedings, who moves the Board to consolidate the above four proceedings, and in support thereof says:

2. The four proceedings involve the same parties, the same line of railroad, and many of the same issues. It would conserve the limited resources of the Board to consolidate these four proceedings.

3. WHEREFORE, Riffin moves the Board to consolidate the above four proceedings;

4. And for such other relief as would be appropriate.

Respectfully,

James Riffin
