Bank may not exercise any right under any corporate security which might constitute the exercise of control by Bank so as to make any such corporation an affiliate of Bank within the meaning of the banking laws until after default.
3. The term default shall mean the occurrence of any of the following events: (a) non-payment of any indebtedness when due or non-performance of any obligation when due, whether required hereunder or otherwise; (b) deterioration or impairment of the value of Collateral; (c) non-performance made by Debtor to Bank at any time or breach of any warranty to or agreement with Bank whether or not contained herein; (d) a change in the composition of any Debtor which is a business entity; or (e) belief by Bank in good faith that there exists, or the actual existence of, any deterioration or impairment in the ability of Debtor to meet its obligations to Bank.
4. Whenever a default exists, Bank, at its option may: (a) without notice accelerate the maturity of any part or all of the secured obligations and terminate any agreement for the granting of further credit to Debtor; (b) sell, lease or otherwise dispose of Collateral at public or private sale; unless Collateral is perishable and threatens to decline speedily in value or is a type customarily sold on a recognized market, Bank will give Debtor at least five (5) days prior written notice of the time and place of any public sale or of the time after which any private sale or any other intended disposition may be made; (c) transfer any Collateral into its own name or that of its nominee; (d) retain Collateral in satisfaction of obligations secured hereby, with notice of such retention sent to Debtor as required by law; (e) notify any parties obligated on any Collateral consisting of accounts, instruments, chattel paper, choses in action or the like to make payment to Bank and enforce collection of any Collateral herein; (f) require Debtor to assemble and deliver any Collateral to Bank at a reasonable convenient place designated by Bank; (g) apply all sums received or collected from or on account of Collateral including the proceeds of any sales thereof to the payment of the costs and expenses incurred in preserving and enforcing rights of Bank including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees, and indebtedness secured hereby in such order and manner as Bank in its sole discretion determines; Bank shall account to Debtor for any surplus remaining thereafter, and shall pay such surplus to the party entitled thereto, including any second secured party who has made a proper demand upon Bank and has furnished proof to Bank as requested in the manner provided by law; in like manner, Debtor, unless an Accommodation Debtor only, agrees to pay to Bank without demand any deficiency after all Collateral has been disposed of and proceeds applied as aforesaid; and (h) exercise its banker's lien or right of setoff in the same manner as though the credit were unsecured. 7. The right of Bank to have recourse against Collateral shall not be affected in any way by the fact that the credit is secured by a mortgage, deed of trust or other lien upon real property.
8. Debtor may terminate this Agreement at any time upon written notice to Bank of such termination; provided, however, that such termination shall not affect his obligations then outstanding, any extensions or renewals thereof, nor the security interest granted herein which shall continue until such outstanding obligations are satisfied in full. Such termination shall not affect the obligations of other Debtors, if more than one executes this Agreement.
9. If more than one Debtor executes this Agreement, the obligations hereunder are joint and several. All words used herein in the singular shall be deemed to have been used in the plural when the context and construction so require. Upon transfer by Bank of any part of the obligations secured hereby, Bank shall be fully discharged from all liability with respect to Collateral transferred therewith.
11. Whenever possible each provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but, if any provision of this Agreement shall be prohibited or invalid under applicable law, such provisions shall be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity without invalidating the remainder of such or the remaining provisions of this Agreement.
