ARTICLE II

Limit of Issue and Form and Terms of Notes

Section 2.01. The aggregate principal amount of Notes authorized to be issued hereunder is limited to fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) principal amount in lawful money of Canada.

Section 2.02. All Notes issued hereunder and secured hereby shall be under the seal of the Company or a reproduction thereof (which shall be deemed to be the seal of the Company) and shall be signed by the President or a Vice-President and countersigned by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or any Director of the Company. The signature or signatures of all or any one or more of such officers may be engraved, lithographed, printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced on the Notes and such engraved, lithographed, printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced signature or signatures shall be deemed for all purposes the signature of such officer or officers and shall be binding upon the Company. Notwithstanding any change in any of the persons holding the said offices between the time of actual signing and the certifying and delivery of the said Notes and notwithstanding that the President or Vice-President or Secretary or Assistant Secretary or Director signing may not have held office at the date of this Deed or at the date of the said Notes or at the date of the certifying and delivery thereof, the said Notes so signed shall be valid and binding upon the Company and entitled to the security of this Deed.

Section 2.03. No Note shall be issued or, if issued, shall be obligatory or shall entitle the holder to the benefit of the security of these presents or the benefit of the trusts hereunder until it has been certified by or on behalf of the Trustee, and such certification by the Trustee upon any such Note shall be conclusive evidence that the Note so certified has been duly issued hereunder and that the holder thereof is entitled to the benefit of the security of and the trusts under this Deed.

Section 2.04. The Trustee shall mark every Note issued hereunder with the date of its certification and any such Note issued prior to the first interest payment date of the Notes shall bear interest from such date of certification and any other such Note shall bear interest from the interest payment date next preceding the date of certification thereof, unless such date of certification be an interest payment date or be prior to the first interest payment date, in which cases such Note shall bear interest from such date of certification. Nevertheless, in the case of any Note issued upon exchange, replacement, transfer or otherwise, if the marking of such Note with the actual date of certification would result in the holder either losing or gaining interest, the Trustee shall mark such Note with such date of certification, other than the actual date, as will prevent any such loss or gain, and such Note shall bear interest in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section as though the date of certification marked thereon were the actual date of certification.

Section 2.05. When any of the Notes are to be issued hereunder the Company shall, without unreasonable delay, cause to be prepared, executed and delivered to the Trustee definitive Notes which shall be engraved, lithographed or printed. Pending the preparation and delivery to the Trustee of such definitive instruments, the Company may execute in lieu thereof (but subject to the same provisions, conditions and limitations as herein set forth) one or more interim or temporary lithographed, printed or typewritten Notes, in such form and in such denominations and with such appropriate omissions, insertions and variations as the Trustee and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Company may approve, and deliver the same to the Trustee and thereupon the Trustee may certify such interim or temporary instrument or instruments or the Company may execute, and the Trustee certify as to each maturity, a temporary or interim Note or Notes of the aggregate principal amount of Notes of such maturity authorized from time to time to be issued hereunder and deliver the same to the Trustee and thereupon the Trustee may issue its own interim certificates, in such form and in such amounts, not exceeding in the aggregate as to each maturity the principal amount of the temporary Note or Notes so delivered to it, as the Trustee and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Company may approve, entitling the holder thereof to definitive Notes when the same are ready for delivery. When so issued, such interim or temporary Notes or certificates, as the case may be, shall until exchanged for definitive instruments, entitle the holders thereof to rank for all purposes as Noteholders and otherwise in respect of these presents to the same extent and in the same manner as though the said exchange had actually been made. When exchanged for definitive instruments, such interim or temporary Notes or certificates shall forthwith be cancelled by the Trustee. No charge shall be made by the Trustee to the holders of such interim or temporary Notes or certificates for the exchange thereof, all charges in this respect being borne by the Company.

Section 2.06. The Company shall at all times cause to be kept by and at the offices of the Trustee in the City of Montreal or Toronto, and at such other place or places, if any, and by the Trustee or such other Registrar or Registrars, if any, as the Company, with the approval of the Trustee, may designate, Registers in any one of which shall be entered the names and post office addresses of the holders of Notes and particulars of the Notes held by them respectively and in which transfers of Notes shall be registered.

Section 2.07. No transfer of a Note nor any transmission thereof by death shall be valid unless made on one of such Registers by the registered holder or by his executors, administrators or other legal representatives or his or their attorney duly appointed by an instrument in writing, in form and as to execution satisfactory to the Trustee, and upon compliance with such reasonable requirements as the Trustee or other Registrar may prescribe, and unless such transfer shall have been duly noted on such Note by the Trustee or other Registrar.

Section 2.08. The Noteholders may at any time and from time to time, and without payment of any fee, transfer the Notes held by them respectively from the Register in which the registration of such Notes appears to another Register maintained in another place authorized for that purpose under the provisions of this Deed.

Section 2.09. Except in the case of the Register required to be kept at the City of Montreal or Toronto, the Company, with the approval of the Trustee, shall have power at any time to close any Register upon which the entries of the registration of any Notes appear and in that event shall transfer the records thereof to another existing Register or to a new Register, and thereafter such Notes shall be deemed to be registered on such existing or new Register as the case may be. In the event that the Register in any place is closed and the records transferred to a Register kept in another place, notice of such change shall be given, in the manner provided in Section 2.10 hereof, to the holders of the Notes registered in the Register so closed.

Section 2.10. All notices given hereunder to the Noteholders shall be deemed validly given if sent by registered mail prepaid addressed to the holders at their post office addresses appearing in the Registers hereinbefore mentioned or, in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one whose name stands first in the Register as one of such joint holders. All such notices shall be mailed at the City of Montreal, or, with the approval of the Trustee, at any other place or places where the Company may have established Registers in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Deed or partly at one of such places and partly at another or others. Every notice so sent shall be deemed to have been given on the day when such notice is posted as aforesaid.

Section 2.11 The Registers hereinbefore referred to shall, at all reasonable times, be open for inspection by the Company, the Trustee or any Noteholder.

Section 2.12. The person in whose name Notes shall be registered shall be deemed and regarded as the owner thereof for all purposes of this Deed and payment of or on account of the principal of and premium, if any, on such Notes shall be made only to or upon the order in writing of such registered holder thereof. As the interest matures on the Notes, the Company (except in case of payment at maturity or if called for redemption, in which cases payment of interest will be made upon surrender of the Notes) shall forward or cause to be forwarded by post prepaid, addressed to the registered address of the holder for the time being or, in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one whose name stands first in the Register as one of such joint holders, a cheque for such interest (less any tax required to be deducted), payable, as herein provided, to the order of such holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the order of all such holders, failing written instructions from them to the contrary. The forwarding of such cheque shall satisfy and discharge the liability for interest upon any Note to the extent of the sum or sums represented thereby (plus the amount of any tax deducted as aforesaid) unless such cheque be not paid on presentation or be lost or stolen before presentation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may, at the request of a Noteholder, transfer any moneys payable to such Noteholder in respect of interest or in respect of principal pursuant to Section 7.03 or Section 7.11 by wire transfer or other like means.

Section 2.13. The registered holder for the time being of any Note shall be entitled to the principal moneys, premium, if any, and interest evidenced by such instrument, free from all equities or rights of set-off or counterclaim between the Company and the original or any intermediate holder thereof and all persons may act accordingly, and a transferee of a Note shall, after the appropriate form of transfer is lodged with the Trustee or any Registrar and upon compliance with all other conditions in that behalf required by this Deed or by the conditions contained in the Note or by law, be entitled to be entered on any one of the said Registers as the owner of such Note free from all equities or rights of set-off or counterclaim between the Company and his transferor or any previous holder thereof, save in respect of equities as to which the Company is required to take notice by statute or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 2.14. Delivery to the Company by a Noteholder of a Note or the receipt of such holder for the principal moneys, premium, if any, and interest evidenced by such instrument shall be a good discharge to the Company which shall not be bound to enquire into the title of such holder save as ordered by some court of competent jurisdiction or as required by statute. Neither the Company, the Trustee nor any Registrar shall be bound to see to the execution of any trust affecting the ownership of any Note nor be affected by notice of any equity that may be subsisting in respect thereof.

Section 2.15. In the case of the death of one or more joint registered holders, the principal moneys of, premium, if any, and interest on Notes may be paid to the survivor or survivors of such registered holders whose receipt therefor shall constitute a valid discharge to the Trustee and to the Company.

Section 2.16. In case any of the Notes shall become mutilated or be lost or destroyed, the Company shall issue and thereupon the Trustee, subject as in Section 2.17 provided, shall certify and deliver a new Note of like date and tenor as the one mutilated, lost or destroyed, in exchange for and in place of and upon cancellation of the mutilated Note or in lieu of and in substitution for the same, if lost or destroyed, and the substituted instrument shall be in a form approved by the Trustee and shall rank equally in accordance with its terms with all other Notes issued or to be issued hereunder.

Section 2.17. In case of loss or destruction, the applicant for a substituted Note shall as a condition precedent to the issue thereof furnish to the Company and to the Trustee such evidence of ownership and of the loss or destruction of such instrument so lost or destroyed as shall be satisfactory to the Company and to the Trustee in their discretion and such applicant shall also furnish indemnity or, if such applicant is an institutional investor, an undertaking to indemnify, in amount and form satisfactory to them in their discretion.

Section 2.18. In every case of exchange of Notes of any denomination for other Notes, and for any registration of Notes and for any transfer of Notes, the expense of any such exchange, registration, replacement or transfer shall be paid and borne by the Company, save that the Trustee or other Registrar may make a sufficient charge to reimburse it for any stamp taxes or governmental charge required to be paid upon such exchange, registration or transfer.

Section 2.19. All exchanges of Notes may be made at the office of the Trustee in the said City of Montreal or at the office or offices of such Registrar or Registrars, if any, or at such other office or offices of the Trustee, if any, as may from time to time be designated by the Company for such purpose, with the approval of the Trustee. In every case of exchange the Note or Notes surrendered shall be cancelled.

Section 2.20. The Company and the Trustee shall not be required to make exchanges, registrations or transfers of Notes during a period of ten (10) days next preceding an interest payment date thereon.

Section 2.21. Clause 1 Hypothecating, mortgaging, pledging, ceding, transferring or assuring to or confirming or vesting in the Trustee, or charging in favour of the Trustee, any property now owned or hereafter acquired by the Company;

Clause 2 Adding to the limitations or restrictions specified in these presents further limitations or restrictions, thereafter to be observed, upon the dealing with the property of the Company or upon the release of property from the lien hereof; provided that the Trustee shall be of opinion that such further limitations or restrictions shall not be prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders;

Clause 3 Adding to the covenants of the Company in these presents for the protection of the Noteholders;

Clause 4 Evidencing the succession (or successive successions) of any other corporation or company to the Company and the covenants of and obligations assumed by any such successor in accordance with the provisions of this Deed;

Clause 5 Consenting to the amendment, revision, extension, amplification, alteration or termination of any contract, agreement, lease, license or franchise which may at any time form part of the mortgaged premises; provided that the Trustee shall be of the opinion that the giving of such consent shall not be prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders;

Clause 6 Providing for payment of the Notes at a place or places in addition to the places herein or in any Notes specified;

Clause 7 Providing for or altering the provisions of this Deed in respect of the exchange or transfer of Notes; and

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the mortgaged premises and all rights hereby conferred unto the Trustee, its successors and assigns forever, but in trust nevertheless for the uses and purposes and with the powers and authorities and subject to the terms and conditions mentioned and set forth in these presents.

Provided always that, until the security hereby created shall have become enforceable and the Trustee shall have determined or become bound to enforce the same, the Company shall be suffered and permitted in the same manner and to the same extent as if these presents had not been executed, but subject to the express terms hereof, to possess, operate, manage, use and enjoy the mortgaged premises and freely to control and conduct its business, and if necessary or if deemed expedient to close and suspend temporarily the operation of any of the Equipment provided that the same is at all times kept and maintained in first class operating order and condition, and to take and use the rents, incomes, profits and issues thereof.

The Company represents and warrants that the Value of the Equipment is in the aggregate in excess of eighteen million seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($18,750,000) on the date of this Trust Deed.

The grants, conveyances, demises, assignments, hypothecs, mortgages, pledges, charges, cessions and transfers hereby made and created shall be and have effect whether or not the moneys thereby secured shall be advanced before or after, or at the same time as, the issue of any of the Notes intended to be thereby secured, or before or after, or upon the date of, the execution of these presents.

ARTICLE V

Partial Release

Section 5.01. Subject to the covenant in Section 6.01 (p), at any time while the Company is not in default hereunder to the knowledge of the Trustee, the latter may (but only if and so far as in its opinion the interests of the Noteholders will not be prejudiced thereby) upon the written request of the Company evidenced by a Certified Resolution, from time to time, upon such terms as to verification as the Trustee may reasonably require, release from the lien hereof any part of the mortgaged premises if in the opinion of the Directors expressed in such Certified Resolution the release is desirable in the conduct of the business of the Company and provided that such part of the mortgaged premises as shall be released shall forthwith be disposed of by the Company and provided also that the Company shall have acquired and charged as part of the mortgaged premises hereunder further Equipment substantially of like character and quality of title, of not greater age, of comparable unit cost, having a Value and a fair market value as determined in accordance with the practices of the Association of American Railroads ("AAR Value"), at least equal to the Value and the AAR Value respectively of the Equipment released, together with any Lease thereof and any guarantee of the obligations under the Lease. The Trustee shall be entitled to accept and act upon a certificate of the Company supported by appropriate evidence of the determination of Value and AAR Value as satisfactory evidence of the Value and AAR Value of any Equipment to be released or received as aforesaid, or of any fact necessary or proper for the Trustee to investigate preparatory to taking any action with reference to any such release; and the Trustee shall not be liable for any loss or difference in security resulting from such release.

Section 5.02. In the event of any taking of any part of the mortgaged premises by power of eminent domain or condemnation or other similar power, or of any sale or conveyance by the Company in lieu of such taking and in reasonable anticipation thereof where proceedings therefor might lawfully be exercised to vest such property in the grantee for the same purposes, or in the event that any authority shall at any time exercise any right which it may have to acquire any part of the mortgaged premises, the Trustee may release the property so taken or acquired upon the deposit with the Trustee of a sum equal to (a) the net proceeds of any such taking or exercise of such right of acquisition, or (b) in a case of sale in anticipation of such taking, the net proceeds of such sale or the fair value of the property to be released as appraised by an appraiser appointed by the Directors and approved by the Trustee, whichever is greater. The Trustee shall deal with such sum as in Article X provided. The Trustee shall be fully protected in giving such release upon being furnished with an opinion of Counsel to the effect that such property has been lawfully taken or sold as aforesaid and, in case of any such sale in anticipation, upon being also furnished with a Certified Resolution stating that, in the opinion of the Directors, such sale was in lieu of and in reasonable anticipation of such taking and was for the best interests of the Company having in view such forcible taking.

Section 5.03. No purchaser in good faith of property purporting to be released hereunder shall be bound to ascertain the authority of the Trustee to execute the release or to enquire as to any facts required by the provisions hereof for the exercise of such authority; nor shall any purchaser of any other property be under any obligation to ascertain or enquire into the occurrence of any event on which any sale is hereby authorized.

ARTICLE VI

Section 6.01. The Company hereby represents, covenants and agrees:

(a) That it lawfully owns and is lawfully possessed of the rights, powers and privileges under its charter and of its privileges, immunities and exemptions and that the same are in full force and effect and that, subject to the rights of lessees under any Leases, it lawfully owns and is lawfully possessed of the Equipment described in the Second Schedule hereto and the Leases and guarantees comprised in the mortgaged premises and the Company will warrant and defend the title thereto and every part thereof to the Trustee, its successors in the trust and their assigns, and for the benefit of the holders for the time being of the Notes issued hereunder, against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever.

(b) That, subject to the provisions hereof, it will carry on and conduct or will cause to be carried on and conducted its business in a proper and efficient manner so as to preserve and protect the mortgaged premises and the earnings, incomes, rents, issues and profits thereof and will keep proper books of account and make therein true and faithful entries of all dealings and transactions in relation to its business and will file with the Trustee within the first six (6) months of each fiscal year its audited report for the preceding fiscal year and at all reasonable times will furnish the Trustee or its duly authorized agent or attorney such information relating to its business as the Trustee may reasonably require, and will supply copies of its balance sheet to the Trustee whenever called upon

In case the time for payment of any such interest shall be so extended, such interest shall not be entitled, in case of default hereunder, to the benefit or security of these presents except subject to the prior payment in full of the principal of all Notes issued hereunder then outstanding and of all matured interest on such Notes the payment of which has not been so extended.

(e) That it will pay or cause to be paid all taxes, rates, levies or assessments, whether ordinary or extraordinary, and government fees or dues levied, assessed or imposed upon it or upon the mortgaged premises or any part thereof as and when the same become due and payable, save and except when and so long as the validity of any such taxes, rates, levies, assessments, fees or dues is in good faith contested by the Company, provided that in such case the Company shall satisfy the Trustee and if required furnish security satisfactory to the Trustee that any such contestation will involve no forfeiture of any part of the mortgaged premises, and that it will exhibit to the Trustee when required the receipts and vouchers establishing such payment or will furnish the Trustee annually with a certificate of the Company's auditors that all such taxes have been duly paid, and will duly observe and conform to all valid requirements of any governmental authority relative to any of the mortgaged premises and all covenants, terms and conditions upon or under which any of the mortgaged premises are held.

(f) That it will from time to time punctually observe and perform all of its obligations and will pay and discharge all amounts payable under or by virtue of any lease or license or right held by it at any time so long as the same are of commercial value and will not suffer or permit any default for which any such lease, license or right might be terminated, so that the interest of the Company therein may at all times be preserved unimpaired, provided however, that nothing contained in this Section shall require the Company to make or cause to be made any such payments or to observe any such obligations so long as it shall in good faith contest the liability therefor, provided in such case that the Company shall satisfy the Trustee, and if required furnish security satisfactory to the Trustee, that any such contestation will involve no forfeiture of any such lease, license or right.

(g) That it will register these presents and all other instruments without delay at all offices, within or without Canada, where the registration or record thereof may in the judgment of the Trustee be necessary or of advantage to the security hereby created or intended so to be, and that it will deliver or exhibit to the Trustee on demand certificates establishing such registration and the same from time to time renew, and that it will fulfill all the requirements of the laws of Canada and of provincial or municipal governments of Canada or of any of their departments and of any other competent authority.

(h) That it will fully and effectually maintain and keep maintained the security hereby created as a valid and effective security during the continuance of the Notes or any of them and that it will not permit or suffer any judgment for the enforcement of any builder's, contractor's, workmen's or other lien or privilege upon or in respect of any of the mortgaged premises to remain unsatisfied for a period of thirty (30) days after the date of such judgment, provided that the non-payment of any such judgment for the enforcement of any such lien, privilege or charge shall not be deemed to be a breach of this covenant if the Company shall contest the same and shall give security to the satisfaction of the Trustee for the due payment of the amount claimed in respect thereof in case it shall be held to be a valid lien, privilege or charge.

(i) That it will at all times maintain its corporate existence and, subject to all the provisions herein contained, will diligently preserve all the powers, privileges and goodwill by it owned.

(j) That it will diligently maintain, use and operate or will cause to be maintained, used and operated the Equipment comprised in the mortgaged premises, and will at all times repair and keep in repair and good order and condition the same, consistently with the best practice of other companies working similar undertakings.

(k) That, to the Value or to the reasonable insurable value thereof, whichever is the greater, it will insure and keep insured the Equipment comprised in mortgaged premises for such amount as shall be established by a resolution of Directors, in or with some insurance company or companies of good standing and satisfactory to the Trustee (including such of the companies generally known as "New England Mutuals" or other companies, societies or exchanges for mutual or reciprocal insurance or Lloyd's, London, or other underwriters as may be satisfactory to the Trustee) against destruction or damage by fire and such other casualties as are usually insured against by companies similarly situated and operating like properties. All policies for such insurance shall be so drawn as to make any losses payable thereunder payable to the Trustee and such policies shall be deposited with the Trustee if so required by it. In case of any loss covered by any policy of insurance, any appraisement or adjustment of such loss and settlement and payment of indemnity therefor which shall be approved in writing by some person appointed by the Company and approved by the Trustee shall upon the written request of the Company be consented to and accepted by the Trustee. Should the Company at any time insure the mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, (either separately or under a blanket policy or policies) and be required to maintain a specific amount of insurance under a co-insurance clause, the Company shall at all times maintain a sufficient amount of insurance to meet the requirements of such co-insurance clause. The Trustee shall be entitled to rely absolutely upon a certificate or certificates of the Company's insurers that the amount of insurance carried from time to time is in compliance with the foregoing provisions. No duty with respect to effecting or maintaining insurance or of notifying the Noteholders or others of the failure to insure shall rest upon the Trustee, and the Trustee shall not be responsible for any loss by reason of want or insufficiency of insurance or by reason of the failure of any of the companies or other insurers in which the insurance is carried to pay the full amount of any loss against which they may have insured the Company. Should the Company fail to effect and transfer such insurance as herein provided for and to keep the same in force or to exhibit or deliver any such policies or contracts of insurance or renewals or binders thereof or receipt as aforesaid, the Trustee or any Noteholder or other person or persons acting through the Trustee may, or shall if so requested by Noteholders' Instrument and indemnified to its satisfaction, effect such insurance, in which case the Company shall immediately repay to the Trustee on demand the amount expended in so doing with interest at the Penalty Rate from the date of the expenditure, for which amount and interest the Trustee shall have a lien and charge for its own indemnification, or that of any such Noteholder or other person or persons acting through it, as the case may be, upon the mortgaged premises prior to the lien and charge of the Notes, or the Trustee shall notify the Noteholders of the failure of the Company to insure as aforesaid.

(l) That so long as any of the Notes remain outstanding, the Company will not create or permit the creation of any fixed or specific hypothec, mortgage, pledge or charge on the mortgaged premises or any part thereof.

(m) That until the trusts hereof shall have been finally wound up and terminated it will pay the Trustee reasonable remuneration for its services hereunder and that it will repay to the Trustee on demand all moneys which shall have been expended or advanced by it for the purpose of paying premiums of insurance, rentals, repairs, renewals, taxes, maintenance, preservation, legal expenses or charges and any other expenditures or advances whatever which the Trustee may reasonably make or incur in and about the execution of the trust hereby created, with interest not exceeding twelve percent (12%) per annum from the date of expenditure until actual repayment, and the Trustee's remuneration and the moneys so expended or advanced and the interest thereon shall be secured hereby and the Trustee shall have a lien therefor upon the mortgaged premises and the proceeds thereof in priority to any of the Notes or interest secured hereunder and the Trustee shall have the right at any time to retain and pay itself the amount of any such remuneration or advances out of any funds coming into the possession of the Trustee or its successors in the trust hereunder.

(n) That it will do, observe and perform all matters and things necessary or expedient to be done, observed or performed in virtue of any law of Canada or any province thereof or the United States or any state thereof or any other jurisdiction for the purpose of creating, performing and maintaining the security hereof as a valid and effective security at all times during the continuance of the Notes or any of them and the trusts hereof as security for the Notes, and will do, observe and perform all the obligations hereby imposed upon it.

(o) That it will whether or not required by the Trustee at any and all times do, execute, acknowledge and deliver or will cause to be done, executed, acknowledged and delivered all such acts, deeds, documents and things which in the opinion of Counsel are necessary for giving the Trustee (as far as may be possible under the local laws of the places where any of the mortgaged premises are situate respectively) a valid first specific hypothec, mortgage, pledge and charge upon the Equipment, Leases and other property hypothecated, mortgaged, pledged and charged as part of the mortgaged premises or intended so to be to secure all moneys for the time being and from time to time owing on the security of these presents and the Notes and for conferring upon the Trustee such powers of sale and other powers over the said property as are hereby expressed to be conferred and all and every such further acts, deeds, conveyances, mortgages, transfers and assurances in law, notices or memorials for registration as the Trustee shall reasonably require for the better assuring, conveying, hypothecating, assigning, and confirming unto the Trustee the Equipment and for the better accomplishing and effectuating of the intentions of this Deed.

(p) That it will fully and effectually maintain and keep maintained at all times during the continuance of the Notes, or any of them, Equipment comprised in the mortgaged premises having a total aggregate Value of not less than one hundred and twenty-five per cent (125%) of the total principal amount of the Notes issued and outstanding hereunder; and in such connection and for such purpose, the Company shall implement from time to time, as may be necessary, the amount of said Equipment; and the Company will take all such steps and execute, deliver and cause to be registered all such further or supplemental deeds or instruments as may be expedient or necessary to bring any such additional Equipment within the scope and effect of the security hereby created.

(q) That it will deliver to the Trustee on or before October 31 in each year, beginning with October 1980, a list, as of the previous September 30, certified by the President or Vice-President and the Secretary or the Treasurer of the Company, of the Equipment and of the Leases thereof as at such previous September 30 stating the depreciated book value of each car comprised in the Equipment as at such date as shown by the books and records of the Company in said connection and the Value thereof calculated in accordance with Clause (23) of Section 1.01.

(r) That it will deliver to the Trustee on or before October 31 in each year, beginning with October, 1980, an opinion of Counsel specifying the action taken by the Company to comply with subsection (n) of this Section 6.01 since the last such opinion delivered pursuant to this subsection (r) (or, in the case of the first such opinion, since the date of this Trust Deed), or stating that no such action is necessary.

(s) That should any default occur or be anticipated hereunder or under any purchase agreement relating to the Notes the Company will promptly give notice thereof to the Trustee and the Noteholders, specifying the nature thereof and the steps, if any, being taken to remedy the same.

ARTICLE VII

Sinking Fund and Redemption of Notes

Section 7.01. The Company covenants and agrees with the Trustee that so long as any of the Notes remain outstanding it will, subject to the provisions of Section 7.04, provide a sinking fund for the Notes sufficient to retire seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) principal amount of Notes on October fifteenth in each of the years nineteen hundred and eighty (1980) to nineteen hundred and ninety-eight (1998), both inclusive. Each of the aforesaid dates on which a sinking fund is to be provided is in this Article sometimes referred to as a "Sinking Fund Retirement Date".

Section 7.02. Not later than forty-five (45) days preceding each Sinking Fund Retirement Date, the Company shall deliver to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate stating the principal amount of Notes to be called for redemption for sinking fund purposes on such Sinking Fund Retirement Date.

Section 7.03. So long as any Note is held by any Noteholder which is an original holder or shall have complied with the provisions of Section 7.11 hereof, or the nominee of any such Noteholder, sinking fund payments in respect of such Note shall be made by the Company directly to such Noteholder or his nominee without surrender or presentation of such Note and the Noteholder or his nominee shall make notation on such Note of the principal amounts so paid. The Trustee shall not permit the transfer of any such Note unless the same is delivered to the Trustee for appropriate notation thereon of the principal amount remaining unpaid or in exchange for a new Note in the principal amount remaining unpaid.

Section 7.04. Notes purchased by the Company or the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.23 or Section 10.02 and Notes redeemed by the Company in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.13 and surrendered to the Trustee for cancellation, shall for the purposes of the sinking fund be deemed to remain outstanding in the hands of the Company and shall be deemed to be subject to pro-rata redemption in accordance with Section 7.05 on subsequent Sinking Fund Retirement Dates.

Section 7.05. The Trustee shall pro-rate the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed among all holders in proportion to the principal amounts of Notes in the names of such holders, and shall then designate with respect to each holder, according to such method as it shall deem proper in its discretion, the particular Notes or portions of Notes of such holder to be redeemed. In any such pro-rating, the Trustee shall, according to such method as it shall deem proper in its discretion, make such adjustments by increasing or decreasing by not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) the amount which would be allocable on the basis of exact proportions to such Notes or to any one or more holders of Notes, as may be necessary to the end that the principal amount so pro-rated shall be an integral multiple of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

Section 7.06. Not later than thirty (30) days preceding such Sinking Fund Retirement Date, the Company shall call for redemption at the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, at the place where the principal of the Notes is payable, on such Sinking Fund Retirement Date, the principal amount of Notes required by Section 7.01 then to be retired and on or before such Sinking Fund Retirement Date the Company shall pay to or to the order of the Trustee the principal amount of the Notes so called for redemption together with the accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date fixed for redemption, and such further sum as shall, in the opinion of the Trustee, be sufficient to cover the expenses necessarily connected with providing for payment. Such payment to the Trustee shall be reduced by the amount paid by the Company directly to the Noteholders pursuant to Section 7.03 or 7.11. From the sums so paid, the Trustee shall pay or cause to be paid to the holders of such Notes called for redemption, upon surrender of such Notes, the principal and interest to which they are respectively entitled on redemption.

Section 7.07. If notice shall have been duly given and if the redemption moneys shall have been duly paid to or to the order of the Trustee as provided in Section 7.06, but not otherwise, all the Notes so called for redemption shall thereupon be and become due and payable at such redemption price, plus accrued interest to the date of redemption, on such redemption date in the same manner and with the same effect as if it were the date of maturity specified in such Notes respectively, anything therein or herein to the contrary notwithstanding, and from and after such redemption date interest upon said Notes shall cease; but the giving of such notice in conformity with the provisions hereof shall, if the Company fails to make such payment, produce no more effect as between the Company and any Noteholder than if no such notice had been given.

Section 7.08. In case any question shall arise as to whether any notice has been duly given and such payment made, such question shall be decided by the Trustee, whose decision shall be final and binding upon all parties in interest.

Section 7.09. In case the holder of any such Note so called for redemption shall fail so to surrender his Note or shall not accept payment of the redemption moneys payable in respect thereof or give such receipt therefor, if any, as the Trustee may require, such redemption moneys shall be set aside in trust for such holder either in the banking department of the Trustee or in the bank at whose office the Note is payable, and such setting aside shall for all purposes be deemed a payment to the Noteholder of the sum so set aside and to that extent said Note shall thereafter not be considered as outstanding hereunder, and the Noteholder shall have no other right except to receive payment out of the moneys so set aside upon surrender to the Trustee of his Note.

Section 7.10. All Notes so redeemed shall forthwith be cancelled by the Trustee, and the Company shall not be at liberty to issue any other Notes in substitution therefor.

Section 7.11. In the cases provided for in Section 7.03, or if any Noteholder which is an institutional investor shall so require the Company and the Trustee in writing, sinking fund payments and other payments of the redemption price of a portion of the principal amount of any Note shall be made by the Trustee or the Company, as the case may be, directly to the registered holder but only, in the case of any holder which is not an original holder, if such holder shall have undertaken in writing to the Trustee to note or record such payment on such Note and not to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of such Note, unless the same shall be surrendered to the Trustee for notation thereon of the principal amount remaining unpaid or in exchange for a new Note equal in principal amount to the then unredeemed portion of such Note.

Section 7.12. Save as expressly provided in this Article, the Company shall have no right to call any of the Notes for redemption prior to October 15, 1984.

Section 7.13. mortgaged premises or any part thereof and the payment of taxes, wages and other charges ranking in priority to the Notes and current operating expenses and operating expenses incurred not more than sixty (60) days prior to such taking possession by the Trustee (and moneys so advanced by the Trustee shall be repaid by the Company on demand and until repaid shall, with interest thereon at a rate not exceeding twelve percent (12%) per annum, be secured by the security created hereunder and shall be a first charge upon the mortgaged premises in priority to the Notes), and to receive the rents, incomes, issues and profits thereof and to pay therefrom all expenses, charges and advances of the Trustee in carrying on the said business, or otherwise, and all taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges against the property ranking in priority to the Notes or payment of which may be necessary to preserve the mortgaged premises and to apply the remainder of the moneys so received, first in the payment of unpaid and claims for interest on the Notes with interest on all overdue interest at the Penalty Rate, subject to the proviso contained in Section 9.05 and the balance, if any, shall be held and applied as if the same arose from a sale or realization of the mortgaged premises, provided that the Trustee shall, upon all defaults being made good or waived by the Trustee and the Noteholders as herein provided, restore the mortgaged premises to the Company and pay to it any balance of income so received after such payment of all amounts due to the Trustee hereunder in priority to the Notes, and in case of any such return of mortgaged premises to the Company the security hereby constituted shall no longer be deemed to have become enforceable by reason of the default or defaults which theretofore existed but the rights to arise upon a subsequent default shall not be affected thereby.

Section 9.02. Subject to the provisions of Section 8.03, in case the security hereby constituted shall have become enforceable as herein provided and the Company shall have failed to pay to the Trustee, on demand, the principal of and interest on all the Notes outstanding together with any other amounts due hereunder or on the Notes, the Trustee may in its discretion either after such entry as aforesaid or after other entries by its officers or agents, or without any entry, sell and dispose of, and upon like request as set forth in Section 9.01 and, upon being indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction, the Trustee shall sell and dispose of all the mortgaged premises, either as a whole or in separate parcels, at public auction or by public tender, at such times and on such terms and conditions as the Trustee shall appoint, having first given such notice as it may think proper, which notice shall in any case include advertisements published at least once in each of three (3) consecutive periods of seven (7) days in newspapers of general circulation in the English language published in the City of Montreal, and in the City of Toronto, and it shall be lawful for the Trustee to make such sale, either for cash or upon credit, upon such reasonable conditions as to upset or reserve bid or price and as to terms of payment, as the Trustee and the Noteholders may deem proper, and thereafter, if such sale proves abortive and if the holders of the outstanding Notes consent in writing, in the manner contemplated by Clause 16 of Section 18.01, to sell by private sale, without further notice, and to receive the price or consideration for any sale as aforesaid in whole or in part in Notes secured hereunder in such proportion, at such rate and for such amounts as is provided in Section 9.09, also to rescind or vary any contract of sale that may have been entered into and resell with or under any of the powers conferred herein, to adjourn any such sale from time to time, and to execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers of the mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, good and sufficient deeds for the same, the Trustee being hereby constituted the irrevocable attorney of the Company for the purpose of making such sale and executing such deeds and such sale made as aforesaid shall be a perpetual bar against the Company and its assigns and all other persons claiming the mortgaged premises or any part or parcel thereof by, from, through or under the Company or its assigns, and the proceeds of any such sale shall be distributed in the manner hereinafter provided.

Section 9.03. The Trustee, or any one or more of the Noteholders or any agent or representative thereof, may become purchasers at any sale of the mortgaged premises, whether made under the power of sale herein contained or pursuant to judicial proceedings.

Section 9.04. The Company binds and obliges itself to yield up possession of the mortgaged premises and the conduct of its business in respect thereof to the Trustee, or to any receiver or manager or receiver and manager appointed by it or by a court of competent jurisdiction in that behalf, on its application, on demand whenever the Trustee shall have a right of entry under the foregoing provisions and agrees to put no obstacles in the way of, but to facilitate by all legal means, the actions of the Trustee hereunder and not to interfere with the exercise of the powers hereby granted to it, and in the event of the security becoming enforceable, as hereinbefore provided, the Company shall and does hereby consent to the appointment in such case of a liquidator, receiver or manager or receiver and manager with all such powers as the Trustee is hereby vested with or the court shall order, if so required by the Trustee. The Company hereby binds itself in said event to consent to any petition or application presented to the court by the Trustee in order to effectuate the intent of this Deed, and the Company shall not, after receiving due notice from the Trustee that it has taken possession of the mortgaged premises and the conduct of the operating thereof by virtue of these presents, continue to conduct the operation thereof, unless with the express written consent and authority of the Trustee or other officer as aforesaid, and shall forthwith, by and through its officers and Directors, execute such documents and transfers (including the assignment of all leases) as may be necessary to place the Trustee or other officer as aforesaid in legal possession thereof, and after receipt of such notice all the powers and functions, rights and privileges of each and every of the Directors and officers of the Company shall cease and determine with respect to the mortgaged premises unless expressly continued in writing by the Trustee or other officer as aforesaid, or unless the property shall have been restored to the Company as hereinbefore provided.

Section 9.05. Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, the moneys arising from any sale or realization of the whole or any part of the mortgaged premises, whether under any sale by the Trustee or by judicial process or otherwise or received from any trustee in bankruptcy or liquidator of the Company, shall be applied, together with any other moneys then in the hands of the Trustee available for such purposes, in the first place to pay or reimburse to the Trustee its compensation, costs, charges, expenses, borrowings, advances or any other moneys furnished or provided by or at the instance of the Trustee in or about the execution of its trust or otherwise in relation to these presents with interest thereon as herein provided; and the residue of the said moneys shall be applied:

First, to the payment of the whole amount then owing and unpaid for interest upon the Notes hereby secured, with interest on the overdue instalments of interest at the Penalty Rate; provided that no payment shall be made in respect of any interest the time of payment of which has been extended, whether by purchase or funding or otherwise, contrary to the provisions of subparagraph (d) of Section 6.01 until the prior payment in full of all other interest on the Notes; and

Second, in or towards the payment rateably of the principal of and premium, if any, on all the Notes.

The surplus of any of such moneys shall be paid to the Company or its assigns.

Section 9.06. The Trustee shall not be bound to apply or make any partial or interim payment of any money coming into its hands if the amount so received by it is insufficient to make a distribution of at least two percent (2%) of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes, but it may retain the money so received by it and invest or deposit the same as provided in Article X until the money or the investments representing the same, with the income derived therefrom, together with any other moneys for the time being under its control, shall be sufficient for the said purpose or until it shall consider it advisable to apply the same in the manner hereinbefore set forth.

Section 9.07. Not less than twenty-one (21) days' notice shall be given by the Trustee of any payment to be made under this Article to the Noteholders. Such notice shall state the time and place when and where such payment is to be made and also the liability under the present security upon which it is to be applied. After the day so fixed, unless payment shall have been duly demanded and have been refused, the Noteholders will be entitled to interest only on the balance, if any, of the principal moneys, premium, if any, and interest due to them, respectively, on the Notes, after deduction of the respective amounts payable in respect thereof on the day so fixed.

Section 9.08. The Trustee shall have the right at the time it makes any payment of principal or interest required by this Article to demand of the person claiming such payment the production of the actual Note under which he claims such payment be made, and may cause to be endorsed on the same a memorandum of the amount so paid and the date of payment, but the Trustee may, in its discretion, dispense with such production and endorsement in any special case, upon such indemnity being given to it and to the Company as it shall deem sufficient.

Section 9.09. Upon any sale of the mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, whether made under the power of sale herein contained or pursuant to judicial proceedings, any purchaser may in paying purchase money turn in any of the outstanding Notes hereby secured in place of cash to the amount which would upon distribution of the net proceeds of such sale be payable thereon and, in case the amount so payable thereon shall be less than the amount due thereon, the Notes shall be returned after being properly stamped to show such partial payment.

Section 9.10. Upon any such sale of the mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, whether made under the power of sale herein contained, or pursuant to judicial proceedings, the principal of all the Notes issued hereunder and then outstanding, if not previously declared due, shall immediately become due and payable, together with the premium, if any, which would have been payable thereon if the Notes had been redeemed by the Company pursuant to Section 7.13 on the date of such sale, anything in the Notes or in this Deed to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 9.11. The Company hereby irrevocably appoints the Trustee to be the attorney of the Company for and in the name and on behalf of the Company to execute and do any deeds, documents, transfers, conveyances, assignments, assurances, consents and things which the Company ought to sign, execute and do hereunder and generally to use the name of the Company in the exercise of all or any of the powers hereby conferred on the Trustee, with full powers of substitution and revocation.

Section 9.12. If the security hereby created shall become enforceable, the Trustee may in its discretion and, upon the request in writing of the holders of not less than twenty-five percent (25%) in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, shall by writing appoint a receiver or manager or receiver and manager (herein collectively called the "receiver") of the mortgaged premises or any part thereof, and may remove any receiver so appointed by it and appoint another in his stead, and the following provisions shall take effect:

(a) Such appointment may be made at any time after the security shall have become enforceable and either before or after the Trustee shall have entered into or taken possession of the mortgaged premises or any part thereof but such appointment shall be revoked upon the direction of the Noteholders by resolution adopted at a meeting duly held as hereinafter provided or upon the request in writing of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Notes;

(b) Every such receiver may be vested with all or any of the powers and discretions of the Trustee;

(c) Such receiver may carry on the business of the Company in respect of the mortgaged premises or any part thereof and may exercise all the powers conferred upon the Trustee by Section 9.01;

(d) The Trustee may from time to time fix the remuneration of every such receiver and direct the payment thereof out of the mortgaged premises or the proceeds thereof;

(e) The Trustee may from time to time require any such receiver to give security for the performance of his duties and may fix the nature and amount thereof, but it shall not be bound to require such security;

(f) Every such receiver may, with the consent in writing of the Trustee and the consent of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding given either in writing or by resolution adopted at a meeting duly held as hereinafter provided, borrow money for the purpose of carrying on the business of the Company in respect of the mortgaged premises or for the maintenance of the mortgaged premises or any part or parts thereof or for any other purposes approved by the Trustee and said holders, and may issue certificates (herein called "Receiver's Certificates") for such sum as will in the opinion of the Trustee and said holders be sufficient for obtaining upon the security of the mortgaged premises the amounts from time to time required, and such certificates may be payable either to order or to bearer and may be payable at such time or times as to the Trustee may appear expedient, and shall bear interest as shall therein be declared not exceeding twelve percent (12%) per annum, and the receiver or the Trustee may sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as to the Trustee may seem advisable and may pay such commission on the sale thereof as to it may appear reasonable, and in the name of and as attorney for the Company may hypothecate, mortgage, pledge, charge or otherwise grant security upon the whole or any part of the mortgaged premises, in priority over the security created hereunder, as security for the repayment of the moneys borrowed upon such Receiver's Certificates, and interest thereon at a rate not exceeding twelve percent (12%) per annum, which security may be granted either at the time of or subsequent to the borrowing of said moneys, and said moneys shall be secured by the security created hereby and shall be a first charge upon the mortgaged premises in priority to the Notes provided always that in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred upon the Trustee by this Section the Trustee shall be bound to observe and act in accordance with the directions and instructions of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding given either in writing or by resolution adopted at a meeting duly held as hereinafter provided, if and whenever any such directions or instructions shall be given;

(g) Save so far as otherwise directed by the Trustee, all moneys from time to time received by such receiver shall be paid over to the Trustee to be held by it on the trusts of these presents;

(h) Every such receiver shall so far as concerns responsibility for his acts and omission be deemed the agent of the Company and not of the Trustee.

Section 9.13. The Trustee shall have the right in its discretion to proceed in its name as Trustee hereunder in the enforcement of the security hereby constituted by any remedy provided by law whether by legal proceedings or otherwise, but it shall not be bound to do or to take any act or action in virtue of the powers conferred on it by this Article IX unless and until it shall have been required so to do by a Noteholders' Instrument or by a resolution of the Noteholders adopted at a meeting held in accordance with the provisions contained in Article XVIII of this Deed, defining the action which it is required to take and the Trustee may, before taking such action, require the Noteholders at whose instance it is required, to deposit with the Trustee the Notes held by them for which Notes the Trustee shall issue receipts, or in lieu of such deposit the Trustee may accept as proof of the ownership of such Notes the certificate or certificates of any bank, banker, trust company or other depository satisfactory to the Trustee, wherever situated, to the effect that a specified principal amount of the Notes has been deposited with and is held by it or them as depository of such Noteholders and that such Notes will remain so deposited until the surrender or cancellation of such certificate or certificates. The Trustee may, nevertheless, in its discretion, require further proof in cases where it deems further proof desirable or may accept such other proof as it shall consider proper. The obligation of the Trustee to commence or continue any act, action or proceedings for the purpose of realizing upon the mortgaged premises shall, at the option of the Trustee, be conditional upon the Noteholders furnishing, when required in writing by the Trustee, sufficient funds to commence or continue such act, action or proceedings and indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee to protect and hold harmless the Trustee against the costs, charges and expenses and liabilities to be incurred thereby and any loss and damage it may sustain by reason thereof.

Section 9.14. The Trustee shall not, nor shall any receiver appointed by it, be responsible or liable, otherwise than as a trustee, for any debts contracted by it, for damages to persons or property or for salaries or non-fulfillment of contracts during any period wherein the Trustee or receiver shall manage the mortgaged premises upon entry, as herein provided, nor shall the Trustee nor the receiver be liable to account as mortgagee or mortgagees in possession or for anything except actual receipts or be liable for any loss on realization or for any default or omission for which a mortgagee in possession might be liable.

Section 9.15. No person dealing with the Trustee or its agents shall be concerned to inquire whether the security hereby constituted has become enforceable or whether the powers which the Trustee is purporting to exercise have become exercisable or whether any money remains due upon the security of these presents or the Notes or as to the necessity or expediency of the stipulations and conditions subject to which any sale shall be made or otherwise as to the propriety or regularity of any sale or of any other dealing by the Trustee with the mortgaged premises or to see to the application of any money paid to the Trustee; and, in the absence of fraud on the part of such person, such dealing shall be deemed, so far as regards the safety and protection of such person, to be within the powers hereby conferred and to be valid and effectual accordingly.

Section 9.16. No remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or upon or to the holders of the Notes is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy, but each and every such remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given hereunder or now existing or hereafter to exist by law or by statute.

Section 9.17. All the covenants, stipulations and agreements in this Deed contained, by or on behalf of the Company to be kept, observed, fulfilled or performed, are and shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties hereto and of the respective holders of the Notes hereby secured.

Section 9.18. The Company covenants and agrees to and with the Trustee that, in case of any foreclosure proceedings or other proceeding to enforce the security hereby created, judgment may be rendered against it in favour of the Noteholders hereunder or in favour of the Trustee, as trustee of an express trust for the Noteholders hereunder for any amount which may remain due in respect of the Notes and interest thereon after the application to the payment thereof of the proceeds of any sale of the mortgaged premises.

Clause 1 At any time and from time to time the Trustee or the Company may, and the Trustee shall on being served with a requisition signed by Noteholders representing at least ten percent (10%) of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, convene a meeting of the Noteholders. In the event of the Trustee failing to convene a meeting within thirty (30) days after being thereunto required by the Noteholders as hereinbefore set forth, such Noteholders representing the requisite percentage of Notes as aforesaid may themselves convene such meeting and the notice calling such meeting may be signed by such person or persons as such Noteholders may specify. Every such meeting shall be held at the City of Montreal or at such other place as the Trustee and the Noteholders may in any case determine or approve.

Clause 2 At least twenty-one (21) clear days' previous notice of such meeting shall be given to the Noteholders and to the Company and such notice shall state the time when, and the place where, said meeting is to be held and shall specify in general terms the nature of the business to be transacted thereat, but it shall not be necessary to specify in the notice the text of the resolutions to be passed. (iii) The forwarding by the custodian of particulars of such certificates and instruments appointing proxies by letter, cable, telegraph or radio before the meeting to the Company or to the Trustee or to the chairman of the meeting and providing that certificates or instruments appointing proxies so lodged and particulars of which are forwarded in accordance with such regulations will confer the same right to vote as though the certificates or instruments themselves were produced at the meeting.

Any regulations so made shall be binding and effective and votes given in accordance therewith shall be valid and shall be counted. A holder of Notes may by instrument in writing under his hand appoint any person (who need not be a Noteholder) as his proxy to vote for him at any meeting. Save as aforesaid the only persons who shall be recognized at any meeting as the holders of Notes or as entitled to vote or be present at the meeting in respect thereof shall be the registered Noteholders.

(iii) Power to sanction any scheme for the reconstruction or reorganization of the Company or for the consolidation, amalgamation or merger of the Company with any other company, including any Subsidiary, or for the selling or leasing of the undertaking, property and assets of the Company or any part thereof; provided that no such sanction shall be necessary for a reconstruction, consolidation, amalgamation or merger or transfer under the provisions of Article XIX.

(iv) Power to authorize the distribution in specie of any shares or securities or the use or disposal of the whole or any part of such shares or securities or any cash in such manner and for such purpose as may be deemed advisable.

(v) Power to require the Trustee to exercise or refrain from exercising any of the rights which it or the Noteholders is or are entitled to exercise under this Deed or under the Notes or to waive any default on the part of the Company, other than non-payment of any principal moneys when due, upon such terms as may be decided upon.

thereof due upon all or any of the Notes then outstanding against such purchase price and to give to the Company a valid discharge in respect of the Notes so tendered or the amount so set off;

(c) to hold any property so purchased and Notes not so tendered (subject to any hypothec, mortgage, charge, lien, privilege, cession or transfer or to such right of retention to secure any moneys so borrowed or advanced) in trust for all the holders of the Notes at the time of such tender pro-rata in proportion to the amounts due to them thereon respectively in principal and interest before the making of such tender;

(d) to sell, transfer and convey the whole or any part or parts of the property so purchased for cash upon terms and conditions as may be determined by such extraordinary resolution of the Noteholders, or, failing such determination, as it, he or they may deem expedient; and

(e) until the sale, transfer and conveyance of the whole of such property so purchased, to maintain and operate such part of said property as has not been disposed of and for such purpose to advance money, in which event it, he or they shall have a lien, charge or privilege upon or right of retention of the property so purchased for the amounts so advanced and interest thereon and otherwise to deal with such property and the proceeds of any sale, transfer or conveyance thereof as the Noteholders may by such extraordinary resolution direct.

(viii) Power to remove the Trustee from office and to appoint a new Trustee or Trustees.

(ix) Power to sanction any change whatsoever of any provision of the Notes or of this Deed and any modification, alteration, abrogation, compromise or arrangement of or in respect of the rights of the Noteholders against the Company or against its property, whether such rights shall arise under the provisions of this Deed or otherwise.

(x) Power to assent to any compromise or arrangement by the Company with any creditor, creditors or class or classes of creditors or with the holders of any shares or securities of the Company.

(xi) Power to authorize the Trustee, in the event of the Company making an authorized assignment or a custodian or Trustee being appointed under the Bankruptcy Act or a liquidator being appointed under the Winding-Up Act, for and on behalf of the Noteholders, and in addition to any claim or debt proved or made for its own account as Trustee hereunder, to file and prove a claim or debt against the Company and its property for an amount equivalent to the aggregate amount which may be payable in respect of the Notes, value security, and vote such claim or debt at meetings of creditors and generally act for and on behalf of the Noteholders in such proceedings as such extraordinary resolution may provide.

(xii) Power to require the Trustee to make a declaration under the provisions of Section 8.02 hereof and/or to proceed to enforce the security hereunder, but subject always to compliance with the provisions of Section 9.13 hereof.

(xiii) Power to assent to any modification of or change in or addition to or omission from the provisions contained in this Deed which shall be agreed to by the Company and to authorize the Trustee to concur in and execute any deed supplemental to this Deed embodying any such modification, change, addition or omission of any deeds, documents or writings authorized by extraordinary resolution.

The foregoing powers shall be deemed to be several and not dependent on each other and each paragraph of this Clause 12 and each power therein conferred shall, accordingly, be construed as complete in itself and not by reference to any other paragraph or power in said Clause and the exercise of any one or more of such powers, or any combination of such powers, from time to time, shall not be deemed to exhaust the rights of the Noteholders to exercise such power or powers, or combination of powers, thereafter from time to time; provided, however, that the powers expressed in this Trust Deed to be conferred upon or exercisable by the Noteholders, by extraordinary resolution or otherwise howsoever, may not be exercisable so as to have the effect of (a) changing the fixed maturity of the Notes or any of them, (b) changing the rate or changing the time for payment of interest thereon, (c) reducing the amount of the principal thereof, (d) changing the currency in which the same are expressed to be payable or otherwise modifying the terms of payment of such interest or principal, (e) depriving the holders of any Notes of the lien upon the mortgaged premises (except as elsewhere in this Trust Deed specifically permitted), (f) changing the sinking fund provisions applicable to the Notes, (g) permitting the creation of any lien not otherwise permitted hereby ranking prior to or on a parity with the specific lien of this Trust Deed with respect to any of the mortgaged premises, or (h) reducing the percentages of holders of Notes required by this Trust Deed to give any such consent or to pass any such resolution, without the consent of the holder of each Note then outstanding.

Clause 13            An extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of the Noteholders held in accordance with the provisions hereof, shall be binding upon all the Noteholders and upon each and every Noteholder whether present or absent.

Save as herein expressly otherwise provided, no action shall be taken at a meeting of the Noteholders which changes any provision of this Trust Deed or changes or prejudices the exercise of any right of any Noteholder except by extraordinary resolution as hereinbefore provided.

Clause 14            At any meeting of the Noteholders, in cases where no poll is required or requested, a declaration made by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, or carried by any particular majority, or lost, shall be conclusive evidence thereof.

Clause 15            Minutes of all resolutions and proceedings at every such meeting, as aforesaid, shall be made and duly entered in books to be provided from time to time for that purpose by the Trustee, at the expense of the Company, and any such minutes, as aforesaid, if signed by the chairman of the meeting at which such resolutions were passed or proceedings had, or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting of Noteholders, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated, and, until the contrary is proved, every such meeting in respect of the proceedings of which minutes shall have been made shall be deemed to have been duly held and convened and all resolutions passed or proceedings had thereat to have been duly passed and had.

Clause 16 Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Deed, any resolution or instrument signed in one or more counterparts by the holders of not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding shall have the same force and effect as an extraordinary resolution duly passed by the Noteholders under the provisions of this Article with respect to extraordinary resolution.

Clause 9 That the Trustee, except as herein otherwise provided, shall, as regards all the trusts, powers, authorities and discretions vested in it have absolute and uncontrolled discretion as to the exercise thereof, whether in relation to the manner or as to the mode of and time for the exercise thereof, and, in the absence of fraud, it shall in nowise be responsible for any loss, costs, damages or inconveniences that may result from the exercise or non-exercise thereof.

Clause 10 That the Trustee shall not be responsible for the moneys subscribed by applicants for or purchasers of the Notes or be bound to see to the application thereof.

Clause 11 That the Trustee may buy, sell, lend upon and deal in the Notes, either with the Company or otherwise, and generally contract and enter into financial transactions with the Company or otherwise, without being liable to account for any profits made thereby.

Clause 13            That the Trustee may, if it so elects, enforce all or any of its rights hereunder by judicial proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction. This power of the Trustee shall be in addition to any other powers which may from time to time be vested in it under the general law or as holder of any of the Notes.

Clause 14            That the Trustee shall not be bound to do, observe or perform, or see to the observance or performance by the Company of any of the obligations herein imposed upon the Company or any of the covenants on the part of the Company herein contained, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any of the covenants of the Company to register this Deed or to execute or register further assurances of or hypothecs or mortgages or charges upon the mortgaged premises or any part thereof nor to take any steps to enforce the security hereof, nor in any way to supervise or interfere with the conduct of the Company's business, unless and until the security hereby created shall have become enforceable and the Trustee shall have determined or become bound to enforce the same and unless the Trustee shall have been required to do so in writing by the holders of not less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding, or by a resolution of the Noteholders passed in accordance with the provisions contained in Article XVIII, and then only after it shall have been indemnified to its satisfaction against all actions, proceedings, claims and demands to which it may render itself liable and all costs, charges, damages and expenses which it may incur by so doing.

Clause 15            That, in the event of the Company making an authorized assignment or a custodian, trustee or liquidator in respect of the Company's properties being appointed under the Bankruptcy or the Winding-Up Act, the Trustee, if authorized by an extraordinary resolution passed pursuant to Section 18.01, may in bankruptcy or winding-up proceedings and as Trustee and on behalf of the Noteholders file and prove a claim, value security and vote and act at all meetings of creditors and otherwise in such proceedings as directed or empowered by such extraordinary resolution.

Clause 17            That, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary contained, any payment to be made to the Trustee either by the Company or by any person, or any act or thing to be done by the Trustee may, if and so long as there is more than one Trustee hereof, be made to or done by any one of the Trustees, and the receipt of any one Trustee shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the person making any such payment who shall not be bound to see to the application of the moneys so paid or be liable or responsible for the misapplication of non-application thereof.

Clause 18            That any written demand, statement, request, notice, designation, direction or nomination to be made by the Company under any of the provisions hereof shall, unless otherwise provided, be deemed sufficiently made and executed if executed under the corporate seal of the Company by the President or a Vice-President or any Director and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer of the Company. The Trustee may accept a certificate signed by the Secretary or an Assistant-Secretary of the Company as sufficient evidence of the passage of any resolution of the Directors or of the shareholders of the Company.

Clause 19 That the Trustee shall not be bound to act as hereinbefore provided in accordance with any direction or request of the Company or of the Directors until a duly authenticated copy of the instrument or resolution containing such direction or request shall have been delivered to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall be fully empowered to act and shall be fully protected from all liability in acting upon any instrument or instruments purporting to be proper certificates or copies of resolutions or the Directors and believed by the Trustee to be genuine.

Clause 20 That the regularity and validity of all acts, consents, requests and directions of the Directors or of any officer or officers of the Company shall be deemed for the protection of the Trustee to be conclusively proven by a certificate signed by any person being, or by the Trustee believed to be, the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer of, or the solicitor for, the Company. The Trustee shall not be responsible for any error made, or act done by it, resulting from reliance upon the Company's seal or upon the identity, official position or signature of any officer or Director of the Company, or of any person on whose signature the Trustee may be called upon to act or refrain from acting under this Deed.

Clause 21 That the Trustee shall not incur any liability or responsibility whatever in consequence of permitting or suffering the Company, its successors or assigns, to retain or be in possession of any part of the mortgaged premises, and to use and enjoy the same unless herein expressly otherwise provided; nor shall the Trustee be or become responsible or liable for any destruction, deterioration, loss, injury or damage which may be done or occur to the mortgaged premises by the Company, its agents or servants, or by any other person or corporation, or be in any way responsible for the consequence of any breach on the part of the Company of any of the covenants herein contained or of any acts of the agents or servants of the Company.

Clause 22 That the Trustee shall not be responsible or accountable in any way for any loss incurred or suffered in connection with any moneys deposited by the Trustee in accordance with Section 10.01.

Section 20.02 Notwithstanding anything herein contained:

Clause 1 The Trustee represents to the Company that at the date of the execution and delivery hereof there exists no material conflict of interest in the role of the Trustee as a fiduciary hereunder. If a material conflict of interest arises hereafter in the Trustee's role as a fiduciary hereunder, the Trustee shall, within ninety (90) days after ascertaining that such a material conflict of interest exists, either eliminate such material conflict of interest or resign in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 14.01 hereof.

the person making or giving such statutory declaration, certificate, opinion or report that he has read and is familiar with the conditions precedent, (b) a brief statement of the nature and scope of the examination or investigation upon which the statements or opinions contained in the statutory declaration, certificate, opinion or report are based, (c) a statement that, in the belief of the person making the statutory declaration or certificate or giving the opinion or report, he has made such examination or investigation as is necessary to enable him to make the statements or give the opinions contained or expressed therein, and (d) a statement whether or not in the opinion of such person such conditions precedent have been complied with or satisfied.

The Company shall, whenever the Trustee so requires, furnish the Trustee with evidence by way of statutory declaration, certificate, opinion or report as specified by the Trustee as to any action or step required or permitted to be taken by the Company under this Deed or as a result of any obligation imposed by this Deed.

Clause 4                    In the exercise of its rights and duties hereunder, the Trustee may, if acting in good faith, rely, as to the truth of the statements and the accuracy of the opinions expressed therein, upon statutory declarations, certificates, opinions or reports furnished pursuant to Clause 3 of this Section 20.02 or to any other provision of this Deed or at the request of the Trustee where the Trustee examines such statutory declarations, certificates, opinions and reports and determines that the statements and opinions set forth therein conform to the applicable requirement of this Deed.

Clause 5                    If an event of default, as defined in Section 8.01 hereof, shall occur, the Trustee shall within a reasonable time, but not exceeding ten (10) days after it becomes aware of the occurrence of such event of default, give notice to the Noteholders of every such event of default continuing at the time such notice is given.

Clause 6                      The Company shall furnish the Trustee and the Noteholders annually, and at any other reasonable time if the Trustee so requires, a certificate that the Company has complied with all covenants, conditions and other requirements contained in this Deed that would, if not complied with, with the giving of notice or lapse of time or both or otherwise, constitute an event of default hereunder or, if such is not the case, specifying the covenant, condition or other requirement which has not been complied with and giving particulars of such non-compliance.
