Mr. Robert L. Oswald
Secretary
Interstate Commerce Commission
Room 2215
12th and Constitution Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20423

Dear Sir:

I have enclosed a copy of your letter pursuant to Section 20(c) of the Interstate Commerce Act, 49 U.S.C. 20(c) showing that our security interest as outlined in our Security Agreement dated as of December 24, 1976 between Surface Transportation International, Inc. and United Missouri Bank of Kansas City, N.A. has been recorded by the Interstate Commerce Commission on December 29, 1976 at 10:55 a.m.

The assigned recordation number for our security instrument is 8637. As of this date, all obligations of Surface Transportation International, Inc. to this bank have been satisfied. We are, therefore, releasing our security interest in the railroad cars described in our original letter dated December 27, 1976 and request that you so indicate on your records this release.

If you require any additional action on our part, please so advise and we will be happy to comply with any necessary additional requirements.

Very truly yours,

Robert F. Henricksen
Vice President
