(b) Debtor will furnish Secured Party, as soon as possible, but not in any event within 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter an aging and listing of all accounts for such quarter, together with a listing of the locations of the Collateral and the names and addresses of the lessees of the Collateral, all certified by Debtor.

(c) Debtor shall immediately notify Secured Party of any event causing loss or depreciation in value other than resulting from fair wear and tear of the Collateral and the amount of such loss or depreciation.

(d) Debtor will promptly notify Secured Party in writing of any addition to, change in or discontinuance of his place of business as shown in this agreement and the location of the office where he keeps his records.

(e) Until default, Debtor may use the inventory in any lawful manner not inconsistent with this agreement or with the terms or conditions of any policy of insurance covering the Collateral and may also lease and rent (without option to purchase) that part of the Collateral consisting of inventory provided that all of such leases and rentals are in the ordinary course of business. Debtor may not sell the Collateral, or any part thereof, without the express written consent of Secured Party. Until default, Debtor may also use and consume any raw materials or supplies, the use and consumption of which are necessary in order to carry on Debtor's business.

(f) Debtor agrees to execute and deliver such financing statement or statements and other documents, or amendments thereof or supplements thereto, or other instruments as Secured Party may from time to time require in order to comply with the Uniform Commercial Code as now or hereafter adopted in the State of Texas (or other applicable state law of the jurisdiction where any of the Collateral is located) and the laws of the United States of America and to preserve and protect the security interest and lien herein granted.

(g) Secured Party may, at its option, whether before or after default, but without obligation to the Debtor, discharge taxes, liens or security interests or other encumbrances at any time levied or placed upon the Collateral, and may place and pay for insurance thereof, or pay for the repair, improvement, maintenance and preservation of the Collateral and pay any filing or recording fees necessary to preserve and protect the Secured Party pursuant to the foregoing authorization, and such amount shall constitute additional Obligations of the Debtor which shall be secured by and entitled to the benefits of this Security Agreement.

(h) Secured Party shall have the right at any time, in its own name or in the name of Debtor, whether before or after default by Debtor, to notify any and all account debtors, lessees, and parties to any agreement affecting or covering the Collateral to make payment thereof directly to Secured Party and to demand, collect, receive, receipt for, sue for, compound for and give acquittal for, any and all amounts due or to become due on the accounts and to endorse the name of the Debtor on all instruments and commercial paper given in payment or part payment thereof, and in its discretion to file any claim or take any other action or proceeding which Secured Party may deem necessary or appropriate to protect and preserve and realize upon the security interest and lien of Secured Party in and on the Collateral; but to the extent Secured Party does not so elect, Debtor shall continue to collect the accounts. In the event Secured Party so elects and notifies Debtor, all proceeds of collection of accounts received by the Debtor shall be forthwith accounted for and transmitted to Secured Party in the form as received by Debtor and shall not be commingled with any funds of the Debtor. All such remittances described above shall be applied and credited by Bank first to the satisfaction of accrued interest on the Obligations which is past due; then to the discharge of any expenses or damages for which Secured Party may be entitled to receive reimbursement for under the terms of the Obligations or this agreement, or otherwise; and lastly to the payment and prepayment of principal on the earliest maturing installment of the Obligations; provided, however, that to the extent not so credited or applied, such remittances shall be paid over to the Debtor.

(i) Debtor shall at all reasonable times allow Secured Party by or through any of its officers, agents, attorneys or accountants, to examine or inspect the Collateral wherever located and to examine, inspect and make extracts from Debtor's books and records. Debtor shall do, make, execute and deliver all such additional and further acts, things, deeds, insurances, instruments as Secured Party may reasonably require, to more completely vest in and assure to Secured Party its rights hereunder and in or to the Collateral.

(j) Debtor shall have and maintain insurance at all times with respect to all tangible Collateral covered hereby insuring against risks of fire (including so-called extended coverage), theft and other risks as Secured Party may reasonably require, containing such terms, in such form and amounts and written by such companies as may be reasonably satisfactory to Secured Party, all of such insurance to contain loss payable clauses in favor of Secured Party as its interest may appear. All policies of insurance shall provide for ten (10) days written minimum cancellation notice to Secured Party and, at request of Secured Party, shall be delivered to and held by it. Secured Party is hereby authorized to act as attorney for Debtor in obtaining, adjusting, settling and cancelling such insurance and endorsing any drafts or instruments. Secured Party shall be authorized to apply the proceeds from any insurance to the Obligations secured hereby whether or not such Obligations are then due and payable.

(k) Debtor will keep and maintain the Collateral in good condition and will make replacements in kind, or by chattels of substantially equal value and service, and all replacements shall be covered by the security interest and lien herein granted to Secured Party, and will endeavor to maintain such Collateral at its present worth, ordinary wear and tear alone excepted.

(l) Any and all deposits or other sums now held or hereafter at any time credited by or due from Secured Party to Debtor shall at all times constitute additional security for the Obligations and may be set off against any of the Obligations at any time whether or not such are then due or other security held by Secured Party is considered by Secured Party to be adequate. Any and all instruments, documents, policies and certificates of insurance, securities, goods, accounts, choses in action, chattel paper, general intangibles, cash, property and the proceeds thereof owned by Debtor or in which Debtor has an interest which are at any time in possession or control of Secured Party or in transit by mail or carrier to or from Secured Party or in the possession of a third party acting for Secured Party's benefit, without regard to whether Secured Party receives the same in pledge, for safekeeping, as agent for collection or transmission or otherwise, shall constitute additional security for Obligations of Debtor and may be applied at any time toward Obligations which are then due whether by acceleration or otherwise.

(m) If Secured Party should in good faith at any time be of the opinion that the Collateral is not sufficient or has declined or may decline in value, or should Secured Party deem payment of Debtor's Obligations to Secured Party to be insecure, then Secured Party may call for additional Collateral satisfactory to Secured Party, and Debtor promises to furnish such additional security forthwith. The call for additional collateral may be oral, by telegram, or United States mail addressed to Debtor and shall not affect any other subsequent right of Secured Party to exercise the same. Debtor agrees that Secured Party shall have no duty or obligation to collect any account or enforce any general intangible, or to take any other action to preserve or protect the Collateral; however, should Secured Party elect to collect or enforce any general intangible or account, Debtor releases Secured Party from any claim or claims for loss or damage arising from any act or omission in connection with such collection or enforcement.

IV.

DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

(a) Debtor shall be in default under this Security Agreement upon the happening of any of the following events or conditions (herein sometimes called an "Event of Default"):

- (i) failure of Debtor to pay when due any interest on or any principal or installment of principal of any of the Obligations of Debtor to Secured Party;
- (ii) the occurrence of any event which under the terms of any evidence of indebtedness, indenture, loan agreement, security agreement or similar instrument permits the acceleration of maturity of any indebtedness of Debtor to Secured Party, or to others than Secured Party and such default shall have continued for 15 days;
- (iii) any representation or warranty made by Debtor herein or made in any statement or certificate furnished to Secured Party by the Debtor pursuant hereto or in connection with any loan or loans proves incorrect in any material respect as of the date of the making or issuance thereof;
- (iv) default occurs in the observance or performance by Debtor of any covenant of this agreement and such default shall have continued for 15 days;
- (v) the death, dissolution, termination of existence, insolvency or business failure of the Debtor, or the application for the appointment of a receiver of any part of the property of the Debtor, or the commencement by or against the Debtor of any proceeding under any bankruptcy, arrangement, reorganization, insolvency or similar law for the relief of debtors, or by or against any guarantor or surety for the Debtor, or upon the service of any warrant, attachment, levy or similar process in relation to a tax lien or assessment against the Collateral; or
- (vi) the Collateral becomes, in the good faith judgment of Secured Party, unsatisfactory or insufficient in character or value, and Secured Party shall have given Debtor 15 days prior written notice.

(b) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, or if Secured Party deems payment of Debtor's Obligations to Secured Party to be insecure and Secured Party shall have given Debtor 15 days prior written notice, and at any time thereafter, Secured Party, may, at its option, without notice or demand, to the Debtor, declare all of the Obligations secured hereby immediately due and payable and Secured Party thereupon shall have the rights and remedies of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in the State of Texas, including without limitation, the right to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any or all of the Collateral and to apply the proceeds thereof toward payment of any costs and expenses and attorney's fees and legal expenses thereby incurred by the Secured Party and toward payment of the Obligations in such order or manner as the Secured Party may elect. Secured Party shall have the right to take immediate possession of the Collateral, with or without process of law, and for that purpose Secured Party may require Debtor to assemble the Collateral and make it available to Secured Party at a place to be designated by the Secured Party which is reasonably convenient to both parties. Unless the Collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, Secured Party will send Debtor reasonable notice of the time and place of any public sale thereof or of the time after which any public sale or other disposition thereof is to be made. The requirement of sending a reasonable notice shall be met if such notice is mailed, postage prepaid, to Debtor at the address designated at the beginning of this Security Agreement at least ten days before the time of the sale or disposition. Expenses of retaking, holding, repairing, improving, maintaining, preparing for sale, selling or the like shall include Secured Party's reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses, plus interest thereon at a rate per annum at all times equal to the highest rate permitted by applicable law of the State of Texas to be contracted for by, charged to or received from Debtor, and shall constitute additional Obligations of Debtor which shall be due on demand and which shall be secured by and entitled to the benefits of this Security Agreement. If the proceeds of any sale or other lawful disposition by Secured Party of the Collateral following its retaking, are insufficient to pay the expenses of retaking, repairing, holding, preparing the Collateral for sale, selling it and the like, to satisfy the Obligations of Debtor to Secured Party, then Debtor agrees to pay any deficiency, but Debtor shall be entitled to any surplus if one results after lawful application of all of such proceeds.

(c) Secured Party may remedy any default and may waive any default without waiving the default remedied or without waiving any other prior or subsequent default.

(d) The remedies of Secured Party hereunder are cumulative, and the exercise of any one or more of the remedies provided herein shall not be construed as a waiver of any of the other remedies of Secured Party.

V.

GENERAL

(a) Any provision hereof found to be invalid under the law of the State of Texas, the United States of America or any other state having jurisdiction shall be invalid only with respect to the offending provision. All words used herein shall be construed to be of such gender or number as the circumstance require. If this Security Agreement is executed by more than one Debtor, the obligation of all such Debtors shall be joint and several. This agreement shall be binding upon the heirs, personal representatives, successors, or assigns of the parties hereto, but shall inure to the benefit of successor or assigns of the Secured Party only. The law of the State of Texas shall apply to this agreement and its construction and interpretation.

(b) Any carbon, photographic or other reproduction of any financing statement signed by Debtor is sufficient as a financing statement for all purposes, including, without limitation, filing in any state pursuant to the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code.
