Notwithstanding any presumption of applicable law, and irrespective of any manner of attachment, the Collateral shall not be deemed real property but shall retain its character as personal property. However, Debtor will at the option of Secured Party furnish the latter with a waiver or waivers in recordable form, signed by all persons having an interest in the real estate, of any interest in the Collateral which is or might be deemed to be prior to Secured Party's interest.

Debtor will defend the Collateral against all claims and demands of all persons at any time claiming any interest therein. Except as previously disclosed in writing to Secured Party, no financing statement covering any Collateral or any proceeds thereof is on file in any public office. At the request of Secured Party, Debtor will execute, acknowledge and deliver to Secured Party in recordable or fileable form, any document or instrument required by Secured Party to further the purposes of this Agreement, or to perfect its interest in the Collateral or to maintain such perfected interest in full force and effect, including (without limitation) any fixture filings and financing statements and any amendments and continuation statements thereto pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code, in form satisfactory to Secured Party, and will pay the cost of filing the same or filing or recording this Agreement in all public offices wherever filing or recording is deemed by Secured Party to be necessary or desirable. In the event of a loss, Secured Party shall be paid the pro rata share of the then outstanding principal balance of the obligations, in the same proportion as the number of items of Collateral lost bears to the then total number of items of Collateral.

2.12 Use of the Collateral. Debtor will use the Collateral for business purposes only and will use its best efforts to ensure that the Collateral is operated in accordance with the rules and regulations of the American Association of Railroads and the U.S. Surface Transportation Board (formerly the Interstate Commerce Commission) or any successor regulatory body. Debtor will keep the Collateral free from any adverse lien or encumbrance and in good working order, condition and repair and will not waste or destroy the Collateral or any part thereof, Debtor will furnish all required parts and servicing (including any contract service necessary to maintain the benefit of any warranty of the manufacturer), Debtor will not use the Collateral in violation of any statute, ordinance, regulation or order, and Secured Party may examine and inspect the Collateral and any and all books and records of Debtor during business hours at any time, such right of inspection shall include the right to copy Debtor's books and records and to converse with Debtor's officers, employees, agents, and independent accountants.

Such financial statements shall be prepared at least as a review by Debtor's independent certified accountants and, if prepared as an audit, shall be certified by such accountants. Debtor shall also furnish Secured Party with any other financial information deemed necessary by Secured Party. Each financial statement submitted by Debtor to Secured Party shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by the chief executive officer, the chief operating officer or the chief financial officer of Debtor, certifying that (i) such financial statement was prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied and fairly and accurately presents the Debtor's financial condition and results of operations for the period to which it pertains, and (ii) no event of default has occurred under this Agreement during the period to which such financial statement pertains.
