4.3 Maintenance of Collateral; Inspection. Do all things necessary to maintain, preserve, protect and keep all Collateral in good working order and salable condition, dealing with the Collateral in all ways as are considered good practice by owners of like property, and use the Collateral lawfully and only as permitted by such Debtor's insurance policies. Debtors hereby authorize Banks' officers, employees, representatives and agents to inspect the Collateral and to discuss the Collateral and the Records relating thereto with any Debtor's officers and employees, and, in the case of any Right to Payment, with any Person which is or may be obligated thereon.

4.4 Maintenance of Records; Inspection. Maintain, or cause to be maintained, complete and accurate Records relating to the Collateral. Any Bank, its officers, employees, agents and representatives shall have the right, from time to time, to examine the Records and to make copies or extracts therefrom.

4.5 Insurance. Maintain and keep in force in adequate amounts such insurance on the Collateral with companies acceptable to Banks as is usual in the business carried on by any Debtor, including fire and extended coverage insurance, with loss payable to Banks, as Banks may from time to time reasonably request, and furnish to Banks upon request the original of all policies, or certificates of insurance on the Collateral. Each policy shall be in form and substance satisfactory to Banks.

4.6 Taxes and Other Liabilities. Each Debtor shall pay all its obligations when due; pay all taxes and other governmental or regulatory assessments before delinquency or before any penalty attaches thereto, except as may be contested in good faith by the appropriate procedures and for which such Debtor shall maintain appropriate reserves; and timely file all required tax returns. Any taxes (excluding income taxes) payable or ruled payable by any governmental or regulatory authority arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be paid by Debtors, together with interest and penalties, if any.

4.7 Debtors' Duty to Give Notice. Give prompt notice to Banks of: (a) any threatened or asserted dispute, setoff, claim, counterclaim or defense involving an amount in excess of $500,000 with respect to a Right to Payment; (b) any litigation or administrative or regulatory proceeding which may have a material adverse effect on any Debtor or its business; (c) any change in the ownership of any property on which any Collateral is located; and (d) the occurrence of any Event of Default or of any other development, financial or otherwise, which might materially adversely affect the Collateral or Debtors' ability to pay the Indebtedness or perform their obligations to Banks.

4.8 Financing Statements and Other Actions. Execute and deliver to Banks, and file or record at Debtors' expense, all financing statements, notices and other documents from time to time requested by Banks to maintain a first perfected security interest in the Collateral in favor of Banks, all in form and substance satisfactory to Banks; perform such other acts, and execute and deliver to Banks such additional conveyances, assignments, agreements and instruments, as Banks may at any time request in connection with the administration and enforcement of this Agreement or Banks' rights, powers and remedies hereunder.

4.9 Intentionally Deleted.

4.10 Agreement With Real Property Owner/Landlord.

Obtain and maintain such acknowledgments, consents, waivers and agreements from the owner, lienholder, mortgagee and landlord with respect to any real property on which Collateral is located as Banks may require, all in form and substance satisfactory to Banks.

ARTICLE FIVE - NEGATIVE COVENANTS

During the term of this Agreement and until payment of all the Indebtedness and performance of all obligations to Banks, each Debtor will not, without the prior written consent of Banks:

5.1 Liens. Create, incur, assume or permit to exist any Lien or grant any other Person a negative pledge on any Collateral, except (a) involuntary Liens which, in the aggregate, would not have a material adverse effect on such Debtor's financial condition or business; (b) Liens for current taxes or other governmental or regulatory assessments which are not delinquent, or which are contested in good faith by the appropriate procedures and for which appropriate reserves are maintained; (c) Liens in favor of Banks; (d) Liens which have been disclosed to Banks in writing prior to the date of this Agreement; or (e) Liens granted pursuant to the SP Remarketing Agreement (as that term is defined in the Credit Agreement) or under the Other Rights (as that term is defined in the Credit Agreement).

5.2 Documents of Title. Sign or authorize the signing of any financing statement or other document naming such Debtor as debtor or obligor, except those with respect to specific term credit agreements with other lenders covering specific inventory as may be approved by Agent, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, or acquiesce or cooperate in the issuance of any bill of lading, warehouse receipt or other document or instrument of title with respect to any Collateral, except those negotiated to Banks or those naming Banks as secured party.

5.3 Disposition of Collateral. Sell, transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of any Collateral. However, prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default, unless otherwise agreed between Debtors and Banks, Debtors may use cash Proceeds collected in the ordinary course of business, and sell or lease Inventory in the ordinary course of business.

(g) Any Bank shall not have a first perfected security interest in any Collateral.

(h) Any judgment(s) shall be entered against any Debtor, or any involuntary lien(s) of any kind or character shall attach to any assets or property of any Debtor, which, in the judgment of any Bank, will have a material adverse effect on the financial condition or business of any Debtor, except as may be contested in good faith by the appropriate procedures and for which such Debtor shall maintain appropriate reserves.

(i) Without the prior written consent of Banks: a Debtor's shareholders of record as of the Closing Date shall cease to own a majority of the voting interest in such Debtor; any change shall occur in the executive management or managing partner(s) of any Debtor; or any change shall occur in the corporate or legal structure of any Debtor.

(j) Any deterioration or impairment of any of the Collateral or any decline or depreciation in the value or market price thereof (whether actual or reasonably anticipated), which causes it, in any Bank's judgment, to become unsatisfactory as to character or value.

(k) Any Bank reasonably determines, in good faith, that its security interest in the Collateral or the prospect of payment or performance under this Agreement or any Loan Document secured hereby is materially impaired.

(l) Any Bank, in good faith, believes any or all of the Collateral, including any Proceeds, to be in danger of misuse, dissipation, commingling, loss, theft, damage or destruction, or otherwise in jeopardy.

(m) Any Debtor shall fail to perform any of its duties or obligations under this Agreement not specifically referenced in this Article Six.

6.2 Acceleration and Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default Banks shall be entitled to, at Banks' option, without notice or demand of any kind (a) declare all or any part of the Indebtedness immediately due and payable; (b) exercise any or all of the rights and remedies available to a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code or any other applicable law; and (c) exercise any or all of Banks' rights and remedies provided for in this Agreement and in any other Loan Document. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Banks agree not to exercise any right of acceleration hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents by reason of an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default under Sections 6.1(a) or 6.1(c)) that is capable of cure until Banks have given Debtors thirty (30) days prior written notice of the occurrence of such Event of Default and Debtors have not cured such Event of Default to the reasonable satisfaction of Banks within the time period specified in the notice. Prior to the expiration of such notice period, however, Banks may, without prior notice or demand of Debtors, take such steps as are in Banks' opinion necessary or appropriate to preserve and protect any Collateral. The obligations of Debtors under this Agreement shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time any payment of any Indebtedness is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by Banks upon, on account of, or in connection with, the insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of any Debtor, all as though such payment had not been made.

6.3 Sale of Collateral. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, Banks may sell all or any part of the Collateral, at public or private sales, to any Bank, a wholesaler, retailer or investor, for cash, upon credit or for future delivery, and at such price or prices as Banks may deem commercially reasonable. To the extent permitted by law, Debtors hereby specifically waive all rights of redemption and any rights of stay or appraisal which they have or may have under any applicable law in effect from time to time. Any such public or private sales shall be held at such times and at such place(s) as Banks may determine. In case of the sale of all or any part of the Collateral on credit or for future delivery, the Collateral so sold may be retained by Banks until the selling price is paid by the purchaser, but Banks shall not incur any liability in case of the failure of such purchaser to pay for the Collateral and, in case of any such failure, such Collateral may be resold. Banks may, instead of exercising its power of sale, proceed to enforce its security interest in the Collateral by seeking a judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction.

6.4 Debtors' Obligations Upon Default. Upon the request of Agent after the occurrence of an Event of Default, Debtors will:

(a) Assemble and make available to Banks the Collateral at such place(s) as Banks shall designate, segregating all Collateral so that each item is capable of identification; and

(b) Permit Banks, by any Banks' officers, employees, agents and representatives, to enter any premises where any Collateral is located, to take possession of the Collateral, and to remove the Collateral, or to conduct any public or private sale of the Collateral, all without any liability of Banks for rent or other compensation for the use of Debtors' premises.

ARTICLE SEVEN - SPECIAL COLLATERAL PROVISIONS

7.1 Cash Collateral Account. All cash Proceeds received by any Bank pursuant to any provisions of this Agreement after an Event of Default shall be deposited in a special non-interest bearing collateral account established with Agent. This account shall be held by Banks as Collateral.

7.2 Notification to Certain Obligors and Possession of Proceeds. Agent may in its sole discretion at any time after an Event of Default (a) notify or cause Debtors to notify the obligors on the Rights to Payment to make payment to Banks; and (b) take possession of any or all Proceeds, which Banks will apply in accordance with Section 7.7.

7.3 Compromise and Collection. Debtors and Banks recognize that setoffs, counterclaims, defenses and other claims may be asserted by obligors with respect to certain of the Rights to Payment; that certain of the Rights to Payment may be or become uncollectible in whole or in part; and that the expense and probability of success of litigating a disputed Right to Payment may exceed the amount that reasonably may be expected to be recovered with respect to such Right to Payment. Debtors hereby authorize Banks to compromise with the obligor, accept in full payment of any Right to Payment such amount as Banks shall negotiate with the obligor, or abandon any Right to Payment. Any such action by Banks shall be considered commercially reasonable so long as Banks act in good faith based on information known to it at the time it takes any such action.

7.4 Banks Performance of Debtors' Obligations. Without having any obligation to do so, Banks may perform or pay any obligation which Debtors have agreed to perform or pay under this Agreement including, without limitation, the payment or discharge of taxes or Liens levied or placed on or threatened against the Collateral. In so performing or paying, Banks shall determine the action to be taken and the amount necessary to discharge such obligations. Debtors shall reimburse Banks on demand for any amounts paid by Banks pursuant to this Section, which amounts shall constitute Indebtedness secured by the Collateral.

7.5 Power of Attorney. For the purpose of protecting and preserving the Collateral and Banks' rights under this Agreement, Debtors hereby irrevocably appoint Agent, with full power of substitution, as their attorney-in-fact with full power and authority to do any act which Debtors are obligated to do hereunder; to exercise such rights with respect to the Collateral as Debtors might exercise; to use such Inventory, Equipment, Fixtures or other property as Debtors might use; to enter any Debtor's premises; to give notice of Banks' security interest in, and to collect the Collateral and the Proceeds; and to execute and file in any Debtor's name any financing statements, amendments and continuation statements necessary or desirable to perfect or continue the perfection of Banks' security interests in the Collateral. Debtors hereby ratify all that Agent shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of this appointment.

7.6 Authorization for Agent to Take Certain Action.

The power of attorney created in Section 7.5 is a power coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable. The powers conferred on Agent hereunder are solely to protect Banks' interests in the Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon Agent to exercise such powers. Agent shall be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of such powers and in no event shall Agent or any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or representatives be responsible to Debtors for any act or failure to act, except for gross negligence or willful misconduct. Agent may exercise this power of attorney without notice to or assent of Debtors, in the name of any Debtor, or in Agent's own name, from time to time in Agent's sole discretion and at Debtors' expense. This power of attorney may be exercised by Agent upon an Event of Default or if Agent deems it necessary to protect the Collateral or if any of the Debtors have failed to perform an obligation under any of the Loan Documents. To further carry out the terms of this Agreement, Agent may:

(a) Execute any statements or documents or take possession of, and endorse and collect and receive delivery or payment of, any checks, drafts, notes, acceptances or other instruments and documents constituting Collateral, or constituting the payment of amounts due and to become due or any performance to be rendered with respect to the Collateral.

(b) Sign and endorse any invoices, freight or express bills, bills of lading, storage or warehouse receipts; drafts, certificates and statements under any commercial or standby letter of credit; assignments, verifications and notices in connection with Accounts; or any other documents relating to the Collateral, including, without limitation, the Records.

(c) Use or operate Collateral or any other property of any Debtor for the purpose of preserving or liquidating Collateral.

(d) File any claim or take any other action or proceeding in any court of law or equity or as otherwise deemed appropriate by Agent for the purpose of collecting any and all monies due or securing any performance to be rendered with respect to the Collateral.

(e) Commence, prosecute or defend any suits, actions or proceedings or as otherwise deemed appropriate by Agent for the purpose of protecting or collecting the Collateral. In furtherance of this right, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, Agent may apply for the appointment of a receiver or similar official to operate any Debtor's business, and, to the fullest extent permitted by law, Debtors hereby waive any right to oppose such appointment.

(f) Prepare, adjust, execute, deliver and receive payment under insurance claims, and collect and receive payment of and endorse any instrument in payment of loss or returned premiums or any other insurance refund or return, and apply such amounts at Agent's sole discretion, toward repayment of the Indebtedness or replacement of the Collateral.

The authority conferred upon Agent in (a) through (f) above may be exercised by Agent upon an Event of Default or if Agent deems it necessary to protect the Collateral or if any of the Debtors have failed to perform an obligation under any of the Loan Documents.

7.7 Application of Proceeds. Any Proceeds and other monies or property received by Banks pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any Loan Document may be applied by Banks first to the payment of expenses of collection, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, and then to the payment of the Indebtedness in such order of application as Banks may elect. Notwithstanding the rights given to Debtors pursuant to California Civil Code sections 1479 and 2822 or equivalent provisions in the laws of the state specified in the governing law clause of this document (and any amendments or successors thereto) to designate how payments will be applied, Debtors hereby waive such rights and Banks shall have the right in their sole discretion to determine the order and method of the application of payments received from Debtors or from the sale or disposition of the Collateral and to revise such application prospectively or retroactively at its discretion.

7.8 Deficiency. If the Proceeds of any disposition of the Collateral are insufficient to cover all costs and expenses of such sale and the payment in full of all the Indebtedness, plus all other sums required to be expended or distributed by Banks, then Debtors shall be liable for any such deficiency.

7.9 Banks Transfer. Upon the transfer of all or any part of the Indebtedness, Banks may transfer all or any part of the Collateral and shall be fully discharged thereafter from all liability and responsibility with respect to such Collateral so transferred, and the transferee shall be vested with all the rights and powers of Banks hereunder with respect to such Collateral so transferred, but with respect to any Collateral not so transferred, Banks shall retain all rights and powers hereby given.

7.10 Agent's Duties

(a) Agent's sole duty with respect to the Collateral in its possession shall be to use reasonable care in the custody and preservation thereof. Agent shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of such Collateral if such Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which Agent accords its own property, it being understood that Agent shall not have any responsibility for ascertaining or taking action with respect to calls, conversions, exchanges, maturities, declining value, tenders or other matters relative to any Collateral, regardless of whether Agent has or is deemed to have knowledge of such matters; or taking any necessary steps to preserve any rights against any Person with respect to any Collateral. Under no circumstances shall Agent be responsible for any injury or loss to the Collateral, or any part thereof, arising from any cause beyond the reasonable control of Agent.

(b) Agent may at any time deliver the Collateral or any part thereof to any Debtor and the receipt of such Debtor shall be a complete and full acquittance for the Collateral so delivered, and Agent shall thereafter be discharged from any liability or responsibility therefor.
